ROYAL VISITORS REACH SCOTLAND

King George and Queen Mary Enthusiastically Received in Edinburg.

THE DECORATIONS ARE SUPERB

Keys of City Presented—Cheering Scots Receive Guests With Loud Acclaim—Historic Places and Scenes—Incidents.

Edinburgh, Scotland, July 17.—King George and Queen Mary arrived here in the Scottish capital today and received a rousing welcome. The city was bright with color, the decorations being the most elaborate that the present generation of Scotschmen has seen.

The way from the railway station to Holyrood Palace was lined profusely with obelisks, columns and Venetian masts with magnificent triumphal arches at all vantage points.

On the station platform the Lord Provost presented the King with the keys of the city made of silver in 1628 for presentation to Charles I. Subsequently the procession was formed and their majesties traversed streets surged with cheering Scots to the eight century old palace which has been rejuvenated in the interior in anticipation of the royal visit.

The old apartments of state used by Mary, Queen of Scots, having been readorned, the historic home of the Stuarts will see a revival of imperial pomp during the five days stay of King George and Queen Mary.

Holyrood Palace has only been occasionally used as a royal residence since the time of James I., who as well as his predecessors resided there almost constantly. Charles I., Charles II, James II, George IV, Queen Victoria and Edward VII, all paid short visits to the venerable edifice.

The name of Holyrood, as abbey and palace, has been connected with Scottish history ever since the days of Robert Bruce, after it had ceased to be a monastary it became the meeting place of parliaments and State councils. It was the birthplace and burial ground of many monarchs, and has witnessed scenes of great splendor, one of the most notable of which was the marriage of James IV, with Margaret Tuder, the union of the representatives of the thistle and the rose, which later brought about the union of the two countries.

The King's famous Scottish bodyguard, the royal company of archers, commanded by the Duke of Buccleuch have taken up their posts and will remain on duty during his majesty's stay.

Tomorrow afternoon the King will visit the grim old castle, where the Scottish crown jewels are kept, and on the next day he will attend St. Giles Cathedral for the dedication of the Chapel of the Order of the Thistle.

RESIST CONTEMPT ORDER.

Labor Leaders Appeared in Court at Washington Yesterday.

Washington, July 17.—Attacking the jurisdiction of the court and the legality of the proceedings, President Samuel Gompers, Vice President John Mitchell, and Secretary Frank Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor, appeared in the equity branch of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia today to resist the latest contempt order issued against them by Justice Wright. The first moves were of a technical nature and were overruled by Justice Wright.

A motion to dismiss on the ground that the service of the order was incomplete was sustained, but when Justice Wright directed the marshal to serve new papers forthwith, the point was waved.

The hearing was adjourned until next Monday without action.

STEAMERS IN COLLISON.

Occurred in Boston Harbor and Neither Were Badly Damaged.

Boston, Mass., July 17.—While feeling her way through a dense fog up Boston harbor late today after having been aground on George's Island for several hours, the steamer Halifax inward bound from Providence, collided with the Dominion Atlantic liner Prince Arthur outward bound. As the vessels were proceeding cautiously neither sustained any serious damage. After a superficial examination both steamers proceeded. The Halifax reached her dock here without further mishap.

While the Halifax was grounded her passengers were removed by tugs and brought up to the city.

TEXAS PROHIS.

Last Lap of "Safe and Sane" Campaign in State.

Houston, Tex., July 17.—A campaign on State-wide prohibition distinguished for its almost scholarly soberness and free from brass-band methods, entered on its final week in Texas today. Debates and orators on both sides are scheduled for nearly every day this week at almost every polling booth throughout the State. On Saturday the voters will say whether the amendment prohibiting the sale and manufacture of liquor shall be written into the new State constitution.

TERRELL NO LONGER SENATOR

Name of Georgian Stricken From Roll. Declares His Term of Office Expired With Election of Governor Smith.

Washington, July 17.—The name of Senator Joseph M. Terrell, of Georgia, was formally stricken from the roll of the Senate today. This action followed a telegram from the Georgia Senator to the Vice President, received this morning, in which he said that inasmuch as his successor had been elected by the Georgia Legislature his term of office had expired with the election. This causes the Democrats to lose one vote in the Senate until Governor Hoke Smith qualifies as his successor.

Senator Terrell's telegram read:

"My successor as United States Senator was elected by the Legislature of Georgia last Wednesday. It is my opinion that this election terminated my term of office, but to remove all doubt I sent my resignation last Friday to Governor Smith and mailed you a copy of the same. This resignation is irrevocable and I have so notified Governor Smith. I will be glad for you to instruct the secretary to strike my name from the roll of Senators."

Just when Governor Smith will come to Washington is not known, but it is now up to him to choose between leaving the Democratic party in the Senate short one vote, in a time of what Mr. Terrell said was one of great gravity, or carrying out the reforms he had planned to execute as governor. If Governor Smith resigns the governorship an election will have to be held within 60 days, and his old enemy, ex-Governor Brown, would be elected, it is said.

Will Ask Smith to Resign.

Atlanta, Ga., July 17.—In a resolution which will be introduced in the House of Representatives tomorrow, Governor Hoke Smith will be called upon to resign as governor and proceed to Washington and assume the duties of United States Senator and give Georgia her full representation in that branch of Congress.

The resolution has been prepared by Representative Ragsdale, of Paulding and Scott, of Charlton. Immediately upon its presentation the author will ask that it be referred to a special committee for consideration and report.

Senator Terrell has resigned and his name has been removed from the rolls of the Senate, it is urged, and now it is Governor Smith's move—either to proceed to Washington and qualify as senator, or permit the Assembly to proceed to the election of a man who can go to Washington at once and assume the senatorial duties.

CASE OF MRS. McMANIGAL.

Argument of District Attorney In the Contempt Proceedings Yesterday.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 17.—Superior Judge Bordwell after listening today to argument advanced by District Attorney Fredericks in contempt proceeding directed against Mrs. Ortie McManigal, for refusing to answed questions before the grand jury in connection with the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times plant last Fall, decided to hear more argument tomorrow.

Mrs. McManigal's refusal was on the ground that she could not be compelled to testify concerning her husband, who, with John J., and James B. McNamara, has been indicted for it.

Judge Bordwell intimated that if the summoning of Mrs. McManigal, who is a witness for the defense, by the prosecution were for the purpose of finding out how much she knew, his attitude would be other than if information were sought for further indictments.

DISMISSAL RECOMMENDED.

Portrait Matter In State Department Cause of Action.

Washington, July 17.—A favorable report on the resolution of Representative Dent, of Alabama, arraigning the State Department emergency account methods and recommending dismissal of Consul General W. H. Mi-ficerod, chael, at Calcutta, and disbursing Officer Thomas Morrison, of the department, was adopted by the House Committee on State Department Expenditures today. The Dent resolution declares it to be the sense of the House that the State Department had no right to take money from the emergency fund to pay for portraits of former secretaries of State, and recommended the dismissal of Morrison and Michael on account of their connection with the $1,600 unaccounted for on a voucher for $2,450 for a painting of former Secretary Day. Michael was at the time chief clerk of the department.

NORFOLK MAN LOST IN GOTHAM.

Matches $5 Bills With Acquaintances and Loses Them Too.

New York, July 16.—Jean S. Oakes, of Norfolk, appeared before Magistrate Herbert, in Jefferson Market Police court today to answer a complaint by a waiter employed at Maxim's who testified that Oakes had refused to pay a bill of $6.

Oakes told the magistrate that he would pay it if he got a chance to communicate with his friends.

"I have been only four days in New York," said Oakes. "I was matching $5 bills with two newly made acquaintances who hat at the table with me. I lost, and my new friends left me in the lurch."

Magistrate Herbert adjourned the case until tomorrow morning to give Oakes a chance to communicate with his friends.

DRASTIC MEASURE PASSED BY SENATE

Important Campaign Publicity Legislation to Govern Certain Elections.

STOPS SPENDING OF BIG SUMS

Promises of Political Jobs Must be Made Public—Will be Subject of Prolonged Conference Between Two Houses.

Washington, July 17.—The most drastic campaign publicity legislation ever passed in either branch of Congress was adopted by the Senate late today, practically without a dissenting vote. Using the pre-election publicity bill passed by the House of Representatives as a basis, the Senate constructed during the day a proposed law with the following important features:

No candidate for the Senate or House of Representatives shall spend in the election more than a sum equal to ten cents for each voter in his district or State. No senatorial candidate shall spend a total of more than $10,000 in the primary and general election; and no candidate for the House shall spend more than $5,000.

Publicity must be given to all primary campaign contributions and expenditures.

All general election expenses must be made public before the election, beginning fifteen days before election and making publication each six days until election.

All promises of political jobs must be made public. The bill further makes it illegal to promise political places in order to secure election support; or to aid in influencing the election of any member of a State legislature.

The bill will be the subject of probably prolonged conference between the two Houses. It originated in the House, as a part of the Democratic legislative programme and was designated to require the publication expenditures before election which is not required by the existing publicity law. The Republicans in the House unsuccessfully attempted to extend the bill to cover primary election expenses. In the Senate today the primary election amendment coupled with more radical amendments were adopted with little opposition.

The Senate amendments authorized by the Committee on Privileges and Elections required publicity of all primary election expenses and all pledges of political jobs or favors. Some objection to this was made on the ground that primary elections were not within the control of Congress. The amendment was finally adopted however, by a vote of 50 to 1, Senators Bacon, Bailey, Banhead, Johnston, Bryan, Overman and Taylor voting against it.

The more rigid portion of the bill, limiting the amount a senatorial or congressional candidate may spend in any election, and prohibiting the making of all pledges, was proposed by Senator Reed of Missouri, and adopted only after a long debate.

Senator Reed referred to the campaign expense statement filed by Senator Stephenson, of Wisconsin, showing expenditures of approximately $107,000 and to other large sums spent by Senatorial candidates. He finally offered an amendment putting the total expenditure by any candidate at a sum not to exceed ten cents per head for the voters in the candidate's States. Senator Borah said this would permit a senatorial candidate in New York to spend nearly $200,000 at his election, while the candidates in Nevada could spend only about $1,000.

The Reed amendment was defeated once, but was re-newed and adopted.

MYSTERY ABOUT ENSIGN YOUNG.

Young Concord Naval Officer Still Missing—Probably Drowned.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Concord, N. C., July 17.—The disappearance of Ensign Robert S. Young, Jr., of this city, from the torpedo boat Parkins, in the New York navy yards, is still as great a mystery as it was a week ago, when the news flashed over the country in the press dispatches. In spite of the efforts that are being made to find the young man, naval officers and friends and relatives of the young officer cannot give any information as to his whereabouts. No message has been received here since Friday night, when his father telegraphed from New York that he had not been found, but would be. Some of his friends here think that the young man is drowned, while others are of the opinion that he is still in hiding. The whole city is stirred up over the case.

WEAVERVILLE CAR LINE.

New and Improved Rolling Stock for Mountain Line.

Asheville, N. C., July 16.—The new interpole interurban electric car which the Asheville & East Tennessee Railroad ordered some weeks ago for use on the Weaverville line arrived today. The officers of the company hope to have it in operation tomorrow afternoon. The car came on a flat and will be taken to the sheds of the company from Craggy over the Craggy branch of the Southern Railway.

AN OUTRAGE AT ROCKINGHAM

Respectable White Woman Victim of Criminal Assault—Broke Into Her Home During the Night—Arrest Expected.

Raleigh, N. C., July 17.—Special tonight from the town of Rockingham, Richmond county, N. C., gives particulars of a horrible criminal assault upon Mrs. M. E. Beck, a respectable widow, 60 years old.

The assault occurred just before daylight Sunday morning. The man (whether white or black Mrs. Beck was unable to see), broke into the residence. The first intimation the victim had was when she was awakened by his hands on her throat.

He commanded her to be quiet till he accomplished his purpose, which he did.

At 11 o'clock tonight a telegram states that no arrest has yet been made, but a suspect is missing and an arrest is expected tomorrow.

This evening the Mayor and citizens offered a reward of $500 and tonight Governor Kitchin added $400 to the amount.

TWELVE DIED IN WRECK.

Express Crowded With Tourists Is Wrecked in Germany.

Mullheim Baden, Germany, July 17.—A through express from Basel, Switzerland for Berlin, crowded with heavy tourist traffic, was wrecked here today. Twelve persons were killed while scores of others were injured, many of them seriously.

The accident occurred as the train coming from the South was entering the station. The locomotive was derailed and was followed from the tracks by four cars, a first-class, a second-class and two third-class coaches. These cars telescoped each other. At the same time, the remaining cars were thrown to the opposite side of the track and piled up against a train standing on the southbound rails. Not a passenger in the first three coaches of the train escaped injury.

It was definitely announced tonight that there were no Americans among the killed or injured.

GRENSBORO LAWYER NAMED

Judge Bynum to Co-operate With the Committee.

Richmond, Va., July 17.—In accordance with an order of the Committee on Reformation and Practice in equity cases in United States courts, consisting of the chief justice and two associate justices of the Supreme Court, Judge Nathan Goff, of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, of the Fourth Circuit, has named the following three members of the bar to co-operate in this work: Judge L. L. Lewis, of this city, district attorney and one of the most prominent lawyers of Virginia; William P. Bynum, of Greensboro, N. C., and George Whitelock, of Baltimore. An order to this effect was received today by Clerk Maloney, of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals here.

MRS. SARAH GABBETT DEAD.

Designer of the Confederate Cross of Honor Passes at Advanced Age.

Atlanta, Ga., July 16.—Mrs. Sarah E. Gabbett, know throughout the South as the designer of the cross of honor of the Confederacy, an emblem given Confederate soldiers of valor, died at her home here early this morning. Mrs. Gabbett was 78 years old and formerly lived in Savannah. She was prominent in church work and is said to have left a comfortable fortune.

To show the appreciation in which she was held, Mrs. Gabbett several years ago was presented with a large gold cross of honor by the Confederate veterans of Georgia.

Atlanta, July 17.—A bill increasing the governor's salary from $5,000 to $7,500 a year was introduced into the house this morning by Joe Hill Hall, of Bibb county. It provides that future governors shall pay their household expenses, now paid by the State. If passed, the increase would not become effective until after the term of the present executive.

OUTLINES.

The most drastic campaign publicity legislation ever passed by either branch of Congress was adopted by the Senate yesterday. To prevent spending of large sums of money in elections is one of the chief features.——A suit by the government to compel the disassociation of the Reading Railway from the Reading Coal Company was filed in the Federal court in Washington yesterday.——Rigid orders have been issued by the Treasury Department to health authorities to keep a close watch over vessels coming from countries where there is cholera. The orders were issued as a result of cases at quarantine near New York.——The name of Senator Terrell was yesterday stricken from the list in the Senate at the request of the Georgian. His action will probably make it necessary for Governor Hoke Smith to resign.——New York markets: Spot cotton closed quiet at five points lower, middling uplands 14.25, middling gulf 14.50. Flour was unsettled with business only moderate. Wheat firm, No. 2 red new 90 1-4 elevator and 90 1-2 f.o.b. afloat. Corn, spot weak, export new No. 2, 69 f.o.b. afloat. Oats weak, standard white 51. Rosin and turpentine quiet. Money on call steady 2 1-4 to 2 1-2 per cent, ruling rate and closing bid 2 3-8, offered at 2 1-2.

FEAR OF CHOLERA CAUSING A STIR

Rigid Inspection of Vessels Ordered by the Treasury Department.

THE NEW YORK SITUATION

Cases at Quarantine Reported Reassuring by Health Officer—Eighteen Suffering From Malady—Death List

Washington, July 17.—Every possible effort is being made by this government to prevent the inroads of cholera to the United States. With the most rigid quarantine in force at New York, the Public Health Service has strengthened its inspection abroad and detailed instructions have been issued to all health officials as to the best means of facing the menace.

In furtherance of this vigorous policy the Treasury Department has issued the following order relating to cholera bacillus carriers:

"To diminish the danger from cholera bacillus carriers, steerage passengers coming from ports or places where cholera prevails and arriving on vessels upon which cholera has appeared shall be detained ten days for observation, unless after five days detention they are found not to be bacillus carriers. The same provision shall apply also to other persons arriving on said vessel, who for special reasons are deemed liable to be thus infected."

Assistant Surgeon General Cofer is watching the situation in New York for the Public Health Service, keeping in close touch with Surgeon General Wyman and co-operating with Dr. Doty at quarantine.

"We have tightened up all along the line from Baltimore to Boston," said Surgeon Generay Wyman, "and every port and every vessel is being thoroughly inspected."

The latest report received by the department from Naples was sent June 24th, by Past Assistant Surgeon King, who said the United States quarantine regulations prescribed for cholera infected ports were in force at Naples.

New York, July 17.—The cholera situation at quarantine is reassuring tonight to Dr. Alvah H. Doty, health officer of the port and his assistants. During the last .. hours there has been one death, but no new cases have been reported and several of the 18 persons in the Swinburn Island Hospital are reported convalscent. Some of those now suffering from the plague are seriously ill, however, and the death list may be swollen within the next few days.

The pains-taking task of making bacteriological examinations in the case of each of the 600 persons from the steamer Moltke and upon the Perugia was begun today. Tonight Dr. Doty issued a statement saying that he regarded the situation as satisfactory.

Mobile, Ala., July 17.—Dr. H. Von Ezdorf, in charge of the United States marine hospital at Mobile, one of the most expert bacteriologists in the government service, has been ordered to New York for service in connection with the outbreak of cholora there. He is now en route.

WILEY'S EXPERT ALSO FIRED.

Their View as to Benzoate of Soda is Causing Trouble.

Washington, July 17.—Floyd W. Robison, important member of the staff of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry of the Department of Agriculture, it dedeveloped today, was dismissed from the bureau June 30th, on charges of insubordination. Robison was a member of Dr. Wiley's staff of experts in New York City. He came originally from Michigan.

Dr. Wiley said today that Robison had been dismissed but that he did not know officially why or when he had been discharged.

Secretary Wilson said that Robison had been discharged because of his refusal to carry into effect an order of the secretaries of the Department of Agriculture, Treasury and Commerce and Labor to prohibit the use of benzoate of soda mixed which had been determined was deletorious to health. The order was not to be rendered effective provided "that each container or package of such food is plainly labeled to show the presence and amount of zenzoate of soda."

The dismissal of Robison, the secretary declared, had nothing to do with the recommendation for the dismissal of Dr. Wiley by the departmental board.

It is known that Robison took the same view of the deleterious effects of benzoate of soda as Dr. Wiley took, but they were turned down by the referee board of consulting scientific experts, appointed by President Taft.

HEAVY RAIN AT NORFOLK.

One and a Third Inches Fell During Few Hours Yesterday.

Norfolk, Va., July 17.—Norfolk and vicinity today experienced its heaviest rain storm of the Summer, one and a third inches of rain falling within a few hours. The streets were flooded and car traffic was held up for more than an hour. The rain came as a great boon to truck farmers.

GODWIN NOT OUT OF RUNNING

Friends at Washington Say He Will Not Step Down in Mr. Bellamy's Favor—Representative Faison on Truck.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., July 17.—Friends of Mr. Godwin in Washington were much surprised at the statement of Senator Bellamy that he was going to run for Congress and intimating that Mr. Godwin would not be a candidate and would support him.

While Mr. Godwin is in North Carolina recuperating from a severe operation, his friends here state that the idea is absurd and that he could not possibly have made such an agreement, either directly or indirectly; that he holds a commanding position at Washington and is now situated to do good service, and especially so when the Democrats carry the Nation next year. No stock whatever is taken here in the retirement promise statement and it is well known Mr. Godwin will be a candidate to succeed himself.

Dr. Faison, the representative from the third district, is back from the State, and he came loaded down with ammunition in the shape of letters and telegrams from commission merchants in Northern markets, complaining of the inexcusable delays in shipments of truck and fruit by freight from North Carolina. These the Congressman from the Third will present to the Interstate Commerce Commission this week to back up his resolution, recently offered in Congress, which provides for an investigation of delays in shipment of truck and perishable products from Eastern Carolina to Northern markets.

Dr. Faison is on the trail of those responsible for what he describes as "ox cart schedules and hot air refrigeration." Speaking of his trip to the State, he said:

"The weather was hot, but not nearly so heated as are the truckers of my district from Goldsboro to Wilmington, whose crops are cut one-half by the drought, and the other half by delayed freight and so-called fast express schedules to Northern markets. These delays repeatedly amount to from 24 to 72 hours. I have instances, backed up by documentary evidence, which I will present to the Interstate Commerce Commission this week, showing that carload lots of truck have brought less than the freight charges, due entirely to the slow schedules. Such a story sounds strange in this day of powerful railway engines, double tracks and refrigerator lines, but it is true."

Speaking of the letters and telegrams that he has received and will present to the Commission, showing inexcusable delays on the part of the railroad companies, Dr. Faison said: "I could get a car load of them if nesary, so common are the occurrences complained of, and it wouldn't take any longer than it does to ship a car load of huckleberries to New York, as one of my constituents wrote me the other day.

"With only half a crop as the result of the drought, truck farmers looked for good prices this year. They have been greatly disappointed. This makes greater the need of an investigation by the Interstate Commerce Commission, for the railroad companies would have fallen down altogether, had there been a repetition of the large crop in 1906. That year the railroad companies were unable to make shipments for a period of nine days as the result of lack of cars and engines to haul them. Since then the truckers have been afraid to grow larger strawberry crops, and have turned their attention to other crops, such as cantaloupes and vegetables. Now there is a partial repetition of the first disaster. The truckers have been compelled to abandon freight trains because they go too slow to profitably sell their products, while express trains only move on freight schedules. The huckleberry crop has always gone by freight with fairly good service, but now it has to go by express at three times the shipping charge. The express trains are often later than the freight trains used to be, and as a result this crop, which is worth something like $400,000, is no longer profitable.

"There must be relief for both the truckers and the railroads. The truckers cannot afford to have their industry destroyed by slow and inferior train transportation, and the railroads cannot afford to have a large annual net profit—37 to 48 per cent. of their gross earnings—cut down by bad schedules, which will ultimately destroy the great truck industry. A thorough investigation will be desirable alike to the farmers and the railroads, just as the two and a half cent passenger rates have saved the people of the State $500,000 a year, and doubled the passenger profits of the railroads." H. E. C. B.

Mr. Godwin Interviewed.

Dunn, N. C., July 17.—Having seen the item in The Star of the 13th inst. that State Senator Geo. H. Bellamy would run for Congress and noting the inference that some kind of an agreement had been made, your reporter called on Congressman Godwin today and asked him if he had agreed not to run or stand for re-nomination next year. He said: "No, I have made no agreement with any one in any way, shape or form, either directly or indirectly, not to run or stand for re-nomination next year, or to support any particular person who may become a candidate. I do not believe in promises of this kind as they generally work great injustice to friends. No, you may say I have made no agreement in the past and will make none in the future."

FIGHT ON READING NOW BEING WAGED

Government Would Separate Railroad From Control of Coal Business.

SECOND ACTION IS BROUGHT

Parallels Recent One Against Lehigh Valley—Railroad Regulates the Selling Price—Object to Evade Law.

Washington, July 17.—A government suit to compel a bana fide dissociation of the Reading Railway from the Reading Coal Company was filed today in the Federal Court, at Philadelphia. The action parallels a recent one against the Lehigh Valley and is the government's second move in its new fight to separate the coal carrying railroads from their virtual control of the coal business.

The government's suit takes the form of an amended complaint to the original commodities clause action of 1908; which is in conformance with the commodities decision of the Supreme Court.

It is charged by the government that the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Company, the Fulton Company, the Locust Gap Improvement Company, the Tremont Coal Company, the Mammoth Vein Coal & Improvement Company, the Preston Coal & Improvement Company and the Delaware Coal Company are merely dummies of the Reading Railway Company and the Reading Company which is the head of the corporation.

As in the Lehigh Valley suit, the government charges that the Reading Company and its subsidiaries are buying anthracite from independent operators along the line of the Reading Railway with the object of removing competition, transporting it to market at a loss and there regulating the selling price. The coal company loses on such transactions, the government alleges that the railway company may profit from the freight charges.

As a further evidence that the coal company is not a bona fide corporation, but a mere adjunct of the railroad and the device for evading the commodities clause of the inter-State commerce law the government charges that the offices of the railway company and the coal company are the same, that the railway company has advanced more than $70,000,000 to the coal company which is carried as an open charge.

The government cites that the railway company has paid as high as four per cent. for money for the coal company's operations, while the coal company has seldom paid any interest at all, and never more than two per cent. to the railway company. It is known that the Department of Justice intends to fight for a strict compliance with the terms of the commodities clause by all the coal carrying railroads.

GREED OF ICE CONCERNS.

Causes High Prices and Famine in New York City.

New York, July 17.—From the facts as they are alleged to have been found in an investigation by Police Commissioner Rhinelander Waldo, "it would appear that the present high price of ice is largely due to the greed of the ice companies in refusing to take necessary measures to supply the city's wants."

In reporting his findings to the mayor today, the commissioner says that of 430 independent ice dealers interviewed, 229 complained of prices charged by the larger wholesalers; that about July 1st, when the hot weather est in, the largest of New York companies—the Knickerbocker Ice Company—raised the price from $2.25 to $3.00 and at one east-side dock more than doubeld the price, to $5 a ton.

The advance was made, the commissioner finds, in the face of a plentiful supply in storage along the upper Hudson, and over 300,000 tons on barges in the river, and he finds no basis for the excuse that the Knickerbocker company could not find men enough to handle the commodity.

President Wesley H. Oler, of the Knickerbocker company, when shown Commissioner Waldo's report, denied the allegations made in it.

GOULD LAKE AS WATER SUPPLY.

Miss Helen Purchases It For The Benefit of The Village.

Binghamton, N. Y., July 16.—Miss Helen M. Gould has purchased Lake Dales, near Roxbury, the Gould Summer home, which will be used to supply the village with water.

The lake covers 10 acres and is a beautiful sheet of water, fed by springs. It contains thousands of trout and from its surface a large ice crop is harvested each year.

The village mains are to be connected with the lake, which will considerably increase the village fire protection.

APPALACHIAN LEAGUE.

Asheville Financing Its Team—Committee to Solicit Subscriptions.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Asheville, N. C., July 17.—A mass meeting including most of the officers and stockholders of the Asheville baseball club of the Appalachian League, was held Friday night at which ways and means were discussed for further financing the club so that it could stay in the league. The club is in debt and was getting more in debt every day, some of the stockholders not having paid what they subscribed. Over $250 was raised and committees appointed to solicit subscriptions. The prices of seats in the grand stand was raised to 25 cents, the home team getting all the proceeds of the sale of these seats.

UNITED STATES AND JAPAN.

Treaty Went Into Effect Yesterday—The Agreement.

New York, July 17.—The new treaty of commerce and navigation between the United States and Japan went into operation today, replacing the old treaty negotiated during Secretary Gresham's administration. The important point of difference between the two conventions lies in the omission from the new convention of the paragraph in the old relating to immigration restrictions which was objectionable to the Japanese, the United States relying upon the honor of Japan to carry out the spirit of existing undertakings which prevent the departure of Japanese coolies to America.

STILL INQUIRE ABOUT HINES.

Featured Lorimer Probe Yesterday—Kenly to Testify.

Washington, July 17.—The part that officials of the Edward Hines Lumber Company took in the election of Senator Lorimer to the Senate claimed attention again today at the investigation by the Senate Lorimer Committee.

William Burgess, an electrical contractor of Duluth, Minn., testified that C. F. Wiehe, secretary of the Edward Hines Lumber Company, remarked to him last March that he had subscribed $10,000 to a "jack pot" to elect Lorimer. Herman H. Hettler, president of the Herman H. Hettler Lumber Co., of Chicago, a rival of the Hines company, testified that on the day of the election Hines said to him that he personally had elected Lorimer.

On the other hand, Henry Turrish, another business man of Duluth, failed to bear out the testimony of Worth Cook, a business associate to the effect that Hines said to them about the time of the Lorimer election that "Old Stephenson," (meaning Senator Stephenson, of Wisconsin, so Cook believed) "after I elected him, was working for free lumber," and that the Southern Democrats fluctuated in their attitude. Turrish said he remembered nothing about the Southern Democrats, but heard Hines say that Stephenson was undecided.

During the testimony of Mr. Burgess the name of a priest, Father Green, was brought into the case as having received a confession from a detective that the detective was employed by a Chicago newspaper to gather "trumped up charges against Lorimer."

Tomorrow it is expected that Jas. Keely, editor of the Chicago Tribune, will be on the stand.

New York, July 17.—The police arrested tonight a well dressed man who said he was Edward B. Kahn, of New Orleans, who is charged with having ordered from cloak and suit manufacturers in this city goods to the value of $60,000 in the name of a Cattanooga, Tenn., firm, to hich the goods were ordered shipped. One of the firm's visited by Kahn wired to Chattanooga for confirmation of a $10,000 order and received a reply that the company there had no buyer in the New York market.

SEABOARD IMPROVEMENTS

An Additional $200,000 Recently Authorized for Enlargement of Terminals at This Port—Faith in Wilmington.

Recently this paper had something to say in commendation of the Seaboard Air Line for the manifestation of its confidence in the future of Wilmington by the large investments made here for terminal and warehouse facilities. Figures were quoted to show abundant justification for this faith in the port in the yield of new commerce and the hope was expressed that the Seaboard would be encouraged to still further add to its splendid facilities for doing business at this deep water terminal.

The hope has been realized in news just received here to the effect that at a recent meeting of the directors of the Seaboard Air Line in New York an expenditure of $200,000 was authorized for still further improvements at Wilmington, the amount being immediately available. All told, this will make about $400,000 spent by the Seaboard in the enlargement and improvement of its terminals at this port within the past three years. The improvements to be made out of this latest appropriation include a fifth large storage warehouse, approximately 100x450 feet in size; the construction of another and a larger slip for docking vessels with cargoes; the rearrangement and enlargement of its freight yards; the building of a substantial round house and to include the cost of the large and more eligibly located freight depot, work upon which has been under way for some time.

The new warehouse will be known as "Warehouse C," and it will be of the type of those large storages recently completed by the Seaboard and which have enabled the port to handle a very large business that would otherwise have been diverted to other ports. The new slip will be larger and more commodious than the new one recently completed, having a width of about 150 feet and dredged to a depth of 24 feet at low water, accommodating the largest vessels doing business here from foreign ports. The new freight station has been under construction for some weeks and will be completed to handle the rush of Fall business. Then there will also be the construction of a new and modern water tank and other minor improvements that will add wonderfully to the Seaboard's capacity for doing business through the port.

Plans and specifications for all these improvements have already been drawn in the office of Chief Engineer W. L. Seddon and proposals have been invited for doing the work, bids to be opened at the general offices of the company in Portsmouth, Va., on the 19th. Several contractors were here during the past week looking over the ground preparatory to bidding on the work, which will be rushed to completion.

Wilmington business men and the public generally have always felt most kindly disposed toward the Seaboard Air Line and these latest evidences of the company's friendship for the port will only accentuate this kindly feeling toward the road. It is a notable fact that within the past few years, the old Carolina Central branch of the Seaboard has grown to be one of the most important of the system and the company has never hesitated a moment to meet the public more than half way in equipping the line for handling expeditiously all the business that is offered. Aside from this permanent business, no single agency has contributed more to the wonderful success of the past two seasons at Wrightsville Beach than the Seaboard Air Line and its alert passenger traffic corps and it is worth while now and then to chronicle Wilmington's appreciation of this faith in her present and future.

WOULD RUIN SUGAR TRADE.

Louisiana Planters and Producers Before House Committee.

Washington, July 17.—Louisiana planters and producers of sugar made a determined stand on the tariff before the House Sugar Trust Committee today, declaring that reduction of sugar duties would ruin the domestic production of cane sugar and that free sugar would annihilate both the cane and beet sugar industries of the country. Chairman Hardwick, a Georgia Democrat, frankly disagreed with their tariff ideas.

"If you solons," declared Prof. W. C. Stubbs, former State chemist of Louisiana, "want to take the tariff off sugar, you must make up your minds in advance that you will kill all domestic sugar production. The big planters and refiners of Louisiana might manage to scrape up enough to start over again in some tropical country, but the small growers would be ruined. When you take off the tariff you may write our obituaries."

J. E. Burkueres, president of the Louisiana Planters' Association, declared a cut in the tariff would kill the Louisiana industry upon which two million American citizens depended for a livelihood.

Prof. Stubbs will be recalled after the committee returns from New York, where hearings will be held tomorrow.

PANIC ON LAUNCH FATAL.

Resulted in Death of One and Narrow Escape of Five Others.

Detroit, Mich., July 17. — Panic on board a launch on the Detroit river tonight, following a trivial explosion, resulted in the death of one person and the narrow escape from drowning of five others. A small quantity of gasoline which had escaped from the engine became ignited and the sudden flash of fire so frightened the six occupants of the little craft and they all leaped overboard.

Miss Mabel Mason, aged 19, whose home is in Woodstock, Ont., sank before assistance could reach the struggling party. The others were rescued.

TWO KILLED UNDER TRAIN

Accident On Coast Line at Jarrett's, Va.—Mangled Under Freight.

Rocky Mount, N. C., July 17.—Saturday night was one of unusual tribulations for the Atlantic Coast Line, so far as the first division goes, for not only did it suffer one of the worst accidents to one of its passenger trains that has occurred during the year, a total derailment of Northbound passenger train No. 86; but two young white men were Saturday night killed at Jarrett's, Va., by a second section of freight train No. 209. There is more or less mystery connected with the accident. The young men killed were Alex. Hobbs, aged 26, and Arthur Wills, aged 24, both of Jarrett's, Va., the accident occurring about 2 o'clock in the morning when the freight train had taken the siding to allow through passenger train No. 83 to pass. It was as the freight was pulling out of the siding that one of the mangled bodies was found, while a later development showed that a second person had been killed in just the same manner. It was at first believed that the young men were killed while trying to board the train while moving, their bodies having been mangled on the same side of the track and near each other, though this idea of the accident seems to have given way to that of the young men having crawled under the train during its long wait in the siding and having gone to sleep, it being stated that they were seen around Jarrett's during the early part of the night in an intoxicated condition. There were no eye witnesses to the accident and a coroner's inquest was held today at noon.

—Charlie Anderson, white, who was sent to the county home some time ago because of his health at the time he received a sentence, escaped Sunday night, but was recaptured by Keeper Blake, and held until Deputy Sheriffs A. L. Kelly and W. E. Howe came after him yesterday. He was lodged in jail. The man has absolutely refused to work at the county home and now it is likely that he will be sent to the roads.

DAILY GAIN IN WEIGHT.

Comes to Those Who Use Samose, Says Druggist J. Hicks Bunting.

The poor, thin, emaciated person, when he or she becomes plump, rosy, and robust by using Samose, forgets that there is such a thing as weakness and underweight.

Samose restores health to the whole system so that the tissues assimilate from the food all of those elements which make solid bone, firm muscle, pure blood, and sufficient fat to restore beautiful and symmetrical outlines to the figure.

An increase in weight is seen from the first week's use of Samose, but if it does not restore you to your proper weight and give you full vigor and vitality, Druggists J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., will return your money. You certainly can afford to try Samose on this guarantee.

Traced Slayer of Aged Hermit in New Jersey.

Newark, N. J., July 17.—The imprint of a man's thumb on a whitewashed board is the clue by which the police of Belleville, N. J., expect to trace the assailant of James Buckalew, an aged hermit who sometime during the past 48 hours was beaten into unconsciousness and left for dead in the kitchen of his tiny cottage.

Whether Buckalew was robbed cannot be learned unless he recovers consciousness at the hospital here where he lies at the point of death. He was found lying across a table with his hands and feet tied and his head stuffed in an ash barrel.

PACIFIC COAST MANEUVERS.

"War" Was Declared Yesterday to Last Until Thursday.

San Francisco, July 17.—"War" was declared at 10:01 this morning when the maneuvers in which United States troops at the Presidio, nine companies of coast artillery of the California National Guard and several naval vessels took part, officially began. The maneuvers will culminate Thursday in an attempt by the gunboat Marblehead and a fleet of tugs towing targets to represent a hostile fleet to pass the fortifications of the Golden Gate and land a force within San Francisco Bay.

George Loose and Eugene Ely are expected to do aeroplane scout duty.

GUBERNATORIAL NOMINATION

Locke Craig May Have Opposition—Kitchin and Simmons—State Text Book Commission. Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 17.—A decidedly acute situation is developing in the political situation in North Carolina within the Democratic ranks. There is every indication now that the Democratic gubernatorial nomination for 1912, so long pledged to Hon. Locke Craig, of Asheville, will be drawn into the senatorial imbroglio involving the seat of F. M. Simmons in the United States Senate.

It looks now like there is a well defined plan on foot by friends of the candidacy of Governor Kitchin for the Senate to put a candidate for Governor in the field and make a set fight against Craig, who is a Simmons sympathizer in the pending contest, this, too, in spite of the fact that it has been understood ever since Kitchin defeated Craig for the gubernatorial nomination at Charlotte three years ago that Craig was to have the nomination this time. The view is said to be taken now by promoters of the Kitchin senatorial campaign that to give the nomination for Governor to Craig next July would put a powerful weapon in the hands of Simmons for his Senatorial campaign through Simmons' influence in anticipated patronage of Mr. Craig as Governor.

This situation is reviving the talk of C. W. Tillett, of Charlotte, getting into the race for Governor, although he has intimated some time ago that he would not stand for nomination. There are others who say there is a possibility of W. C. Newland, avowed candidate for the gubernatorial nomination for several months past, may win the support of the Kitchin following and continue to the end as the only opponent Craig will have. Just what effect the conflicting interests of ex-Governor Aycock and Chief Justice Walter Clark, as the other candidates for the United States Senate may have in checking the plans and movements of the Kitchin and Simmons wings of the party remains to be seen. Both men have very large followings and the moves they made may have a decided checking effect in designs either of the other two candidates may have upon the control of the nomination for Governor.

The sub-commission of the State text book commission has buckled right down to the hardest sort of work in the examination of the great numbers of text books that are being offered for adoption by the commission for use in the public schools of the State during the ensuing five-year period. The sub-commission will report in detail their findings as to the merits of the books when the commission and sub-commission resume joint sessions August 3rd for the final adoption of the text books.

The Ebenezer Evangelistic Lutheran Church of the Unaltered Ausburg Confession, (Inc.), is the name of a new church just incorporated through a charter issued by the Secretary of State. It is to be located in Greensboro and the incorporators are Fred Wahlers, M. Lockner and Geo. F. Mennen. All other members are to come in through signing the articles of confession of faith. There is no capital stock. The corporation proposes to erect a house of worship.

The Third Regiment North Carolina National Guard broke camp at Morehead this morning after ten days thoroughly successful encampment and the Second Regiment will assemble for encampment July 20th. There was not a single arrest during the Third Regiment encampment for misbehavior or from other causes. The rifle practice resulted in the qualification of 78 men as marksmen. Of these Company B., Raleigh, has 24. Five of the regimental marksmen will be in the team from this State that goes to Camp Perry for the National shoot August 17th. Two of these will be from Company B., on account of this company's exceptional record in the encampment shoot.

FIRE AT JONESBORO.

Business Block on East Side of Railroad is Swept.

Sanford, N. C., July 16.—The entire business block on the east side of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway between Main and Trade streets in the town of Jonesboro, except one brick building, was consumed by fire at 3 o'clock this morning with two other buildings on the opposite side of Trade street.

The loss is as follows: Mrs. S. H. Buchanan, building occupied by B. F. Godfrey, postoffice, $2,500; Dr. E. P. Snipes drug store building and contents, $3,000; Harris estate building occupied as cafe; W. G. Murchison, $1,000; S. H. Buchanan estate building, occupied by J. D. Register as furniture store, $2,000, stock $500; W. G. & R. A. Watson, frame hardware store, $3,500; (the brick building adjoining was not damaged); Building & Improvement Company building, occupied by C. F. Malloy, building $500, stock, except $200, saved; Bank of Jonesboro damage small; L. M. Foushee, building, occupied as restaurant, $500. There was no insurance except $500 by Dr. Snipes, and $1,100 by W. G. & R. A. Watson.

Rev. R. M. Mann Resigns Presbyterian Pastorate at Wadesboro.

Wadesboro, N. C., July 16.—Rev. R. M. Mann, pastor of the Presbyterian church here, gave notice today that he will present his resignation to the Mecklenburg Presbytery July 29th, to take effect August 1st. Mr. Mann will accept the presidency of Berkshire Institute of Berkshire, Ga.

Mr. Mann has been pastor of the Presbyterian church here for five years and about five months. In this time he has greatly endeared himself to not only the members of his church but to the entire community. His departure from Wadesboro is greatly regretted, but comes not unexpectedly. For it has been known for some time that he has been offered positions with educational institutions. At this work Mr. Mann is particularly fitted. He has been a great benefit to Wadesboro, especially along the educational line. A year ago he was appointed a member of the school committee here, and chosen as secretary. Mr. Mann is also secretary of Mecklenburg Presbytery.

SIMMONS MASTERLY IN DEBATE

North Carolina Editor Eye-witness to Reciprocity Battle in Senate.

(Rocky Mount Echo, July 13th.)

It was our privilege, while in Washington last Monday, to hear the great speech of Senator Simmons, in opposition to the Republican party measure, known as the Canadian Reciprocity bill, which is supported by many Democrats in the Senate.

Our senior senator spoke for three hours, and during the greater part of the time, was under fire from some half dozen of the ablest Democratic senators, who were attacking his Democracy and endeavoring to confuse him. It looked like a concerted and premeditated attack and an attempt to impeach the Senator's Democracy on the part of the ultra-progressive Democrats. Among the Democratic Senators who attacked him were Kern of Indiana, John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, Stone and Reed of Missouri.

Disagreeing with Mr. Simmons as we do on many things, it was yet particularly gratifying to us to observe the manner in which he handled himself under vicious attack, and the ability and cool courage with which he defended himself and position. It was worthy of note, too, that in not a single instance did he descend from the high plane of battle that so well becomes a member of that great body. He yielded not at all to the insidious invitations and temptations provided for him to throw mud. In every instance, he took care of himself, and not a single thrust penetrated his armour. The attack failed, whatever its object was and whoever was behind it. The Senator emerged from the contest with accumulated laurels and with the honors of war.

The attack on Senator Simmons under such circumstances is to be deplored, and will re-act on his assailants who were thoroughly discomfited by their failure to break the force of his speech or successfully impeach his party regularity. The people know too well the Senator's eminent services to Democracy, and fidelity and courage under all conditions, to countenance such methods.

When you come to think of it, it required a high order of courage and independence for Senator Simmons to vote on the Lorimer case and on the other matters that have given opportunity for attack, according to his honest sentiments, when the country was howling for the other side, and this just on the eve of the Senatorial primary in this State. Those who know him best say that the courage displayed by Mr. Simmons in these matters is in all respects characteristic of him. A demagogue or a time—sever would have trimmed his sail to meet the prevailing winds. Senator Simmons refused to so forfeit his independence and self-respect.

We wish to state here that The Echo has not allied itself with any Senatorial candidacy, and is not espousing at this time, the cause of any of the candidates. What we have had to say is entirely disassociated from the senatorial fight. We do resent the character of the fight that seems to be well started against the Senior Senator from this State. Surely, if any man in the South may with all right lay claim to the name of Democrat, that man is he who led the Democracy party of North Carolina out of the wilderness, in what were perhaps the darkest days of the party's history in this State. And we venture the prediction, that the supporters of any candidate will find it mighty bad policy to question the Senator's democracy before the rank and file of the party, the greater part of whom still are proud and rejoice that they were members of "the Old Guard of '98 and 1900." These men still love their old general and an attack on his character and Democracy, either at home or in Congress, is not calculated to win their support for another candidate.

There's no excuse for such an attack on Mr. Simmons anyway. We believe, in common with thousands of other people, that Mr. Simmons' vote was wrong on lumber and has no doubt been so on other questions during his ten years in the Senate. But whatever mistakes he has made have been mistakes of judgment. His ability and honor are above question. His handling of the question of reciprocity Monday, as well as his presentation of his own defense and the confounding of his assailants, was masterly. He showed a thorough knowledge of all the intricate and manifold phases and details of the matter, that caused senators to wake up. None of the North Carolina newspaper reports from their Washington correspondents, that we have seen, did him justice, the News and Observer's report being notably unfair and incomplete, but as it turns out, it was not the fault of Mr. Pence, who was not present through the whole discussion.

CASCADE POWER CO.

Suit in Which Promoter is Asking for His Share.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Asheville, N. C., July 16.—Gallatin Roberts returned last night from Brevard where he finished taking evidence as referee in the case of W. P. Whitmore vs. the Cascade Power Company, in which Mr. Whitmire is suing the corporation for 96 shares of common stock in the company in return for his services as promoter and for work he did in developing the plant during a period of 18 months. Mr. Roberts will hear arguments at an early date and will make his report to the court of Transylvania at the August term. The plant is situated on Little River; it was developed for about $30,000 and is claimed by the plaintiff to be worth $75,000. In the answer to the complaint it is contended that the plaintiff did not put any money into the company for shares for which he subscribed.

Escaped With His Life.

"Twenty-one years ago I faced an awful death," writes H. B. Martin, Port Harrelson, S. C. "Doctors said I had consumption and the dreadful cough. I had looked like it, sure enough. I tried everything, I could hear of, for my cough, and was under the treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C., for a year, but could get no relief. A friend advised me to try Dr. King's New Discovery. I did so, and was completely cured. I feel that I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure." Its positvely guaranteed for coughs, colds and all bronichal affections. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free at R. R. Bellamy.

WRECK ON COAST LINE.

Palmetto Limited Run Into Open Switch Near Latta—Injured.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., July 17. A. C. L. northbound passenger train No. 86, the Palmetto Limited, with more than a hundred passengers aboard, was sent headlong into an open switch at Buck Swamp, a station two miles north of Latta, S. C., Saturday night at 9:15 o'clock. The train was in charge of Conductor Cotten and Engineer R. D. Bullock and was running 60 miles an hour when the crash came. The wonder is that more were not killed or seriously injured. I. W. Woodard, white, of Lumberton, N. C., who was beating his way on the train, suffered internal injuries and a crushed leg. Mail Clerk Garfield suffered a sprained back and Express Messenger W. E. Andrews was hurt about the head and had his leg bruised while William Green, a colored express helper of Fayetteville, had his leg sprained and was severely injured in the back. The wounded are receiving attention in a hospital at Fayetteville, to which city the passengers were brought in a train made up and dispatched on the regular run of No. 86. The wreck was certainly the work of some miscreant who broke the lock on the stand and turned the switch which was in good condition at 7 o'clock when other trains passed in safety. The switch had not been used in ten days. Every car of the train, including the sleeper left the track, while the engine ploughed into a field neaby, finally resting 40 feet from the company's right of way. Other coaches of the train were turned over, while the baggage, express and mail cars stopped at right angles to the track. Six hours were required to clear the track of the wreckage.

EPIDEMIC BAFFLES DOCTORS.

Peculiar Disease Claims Number of Victims in Mitchell County.

Asheville, N. C., July 16—A fatal epidemic prevails in Mitchell county, which has heretofore been unknown to medical science, and is baffling skilled physicians who have made every effort to check the malady, which manifests itself by small blood-shot stains on the tips of the fingers, passing through the arm into the body and resulting in death within a few days after the first sign appears. The plague has claimed a number of victims in Mitchell county, one of whom was Dr. F. P. Slagle.

Dr. Charles Buchanan, a prominent physician, became affected a few days ago and was sent to Johnson City, Tenn., hospital, where his condition is said to be critical.

There are no paroxysms accompanying the attack. The disease appears to move rapidly from the finger tips along the arm into the body and reaches the heart within a day or two resulting invariably in immediate and apparently painless death.

No permanent relief has thus far been discovered and it is reported that the rapidity with which the malady is spreading has become alarming.

TESTED AND PROVEN

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Wilmington readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.

L. H. Partin, 505 Chestnut St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I am very pleased to confirm the public statement I gave in February, 1908, recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. I have used this remedy occasionally since then and it has always brought the best of results." (Statement given December 26, 1910.)

The endorsement referred to by Mr. Partin was in substance as follows: "My back was weak and lame and I had acute pains across my loins. The secretions from my kidneys were highly colored and filled with sediment and caused me much distress when being voided. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I obtained a box from Bellamy's drug store and began their use according to directions. They acted just as represented and drove away all the symptoms of my complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

S.S.S. CURES RHEUMATISM

The usual cause of Rheumatism is an excess of uric acid in the blood which weakens and acidifies this vital fluid, and prevents the proper amount of nourishment being afforded the muscles, nerves and tendons. The pains and aches of Rheumatism may be temporarily relieved by the use of liniments, hot applications, and other external treatments, but the disease cannot be permanently benefited by such measures, and is bound to become chronic and dangerous if such things are depended upon alone. S.S.S. cures Rheumatism in the only way it is possible to cure the disease. It goes down into the blood, and removes the uric acid from the circulation so that the nerves, bones, muscles and joints are all lubricated and fed with nourishing matter instead of being constantly irritated and inflamed with the sharp, acrid impurity. When S.S.S. has cleansed and purified the blood the pains and aches cease, all inflammation disappears, stiffened muscles are made supple, and every symptom of Rheumatism passes away. Book on Rheumatism and medical advice free to all. S.S.S. is for sale at drug stores.

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the
WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC.,
Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months; 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

The man who knocks has no knack.

It is complained that money is tight. The only relief is to go right to work and prohibit tight-wads.

Don't ever monkey with anything that will flare back. It is worse than the old fashioned boomerang.

It is said 14,000 books were published in this country last year. Of course, the Congressional Record is not the only material suitable for kindling the fire.

A New Jersey man shot himself because the people of the town talked about him. He might have saved himself the trouble by waiting till the people fired him from town.

Never sit up late to write the kind of letter that will cause you many sleepless nights some time later. Some letters surely "come back" at a time when they are least expected.

London tailors are promising the abolition of suspenders. Along with them ought to go the button holes that won't stay the same size, and the buttons that always come off at the wrong time.

A Kentuckian has been sent to jail for firing four times at the man in the moon. The man in the moon was in no danger, but some innocent bystander in Kentucky was, hence the arrest of the man with the gun.

A warning comes from Boston that a man, while under the influence of liquor was choked to death by a celluloid collar. There is a moral in this sad story but Buston men will think it lies in the safety of prohibiting the sale of celuloid collars.

The Church of England proposes to revise the marriage service formulated nearly 300 years ago in the 16th century. It may be about time to put some rule of reason in it, but at the same time, even if it is old, it has been strong enough to bind most couples by a gordian knot.

Taft's "only hope" is reciprocity with Canada, but, inasmuch as the people at the polls declared for tariff revision, he could have enlarged his hope by giving them reciprocity with all nations. For several months, he has had Congress in extra session but didn't give us revision. He didn't touch the main question when he had a chance, hence reciprocity with Canada is a mighty small hope. Also a doubtful one.

The Greenville (S. C.) News is urging the organization of "pig clubs". Of course, quite a number of men make pigs of themselves in various kinds of clubs, but it should be stated that Editor Brunson's pig club is something different. Of course, it is not a club in which pigs only are eligible but a club to encourage the production of home raised meat. A country that doesn't produce its own sausage, hams and bacon isn't worth living in.

A while back the corporations clamored for Federal control, but now that Democrats seem to be in the Federal saddle for a rough ride, they deny that Uncle Sam has jurisdiction. At any rate, the greater number of oil companies in Texas are resisting Federal investigation upon the ground that they are wholly under State control. The government has ordered an investigation into allegations that pipe line rates and regulations are unreasonable, discriminatory and otherwise in violation of regulated commerce. Since all but two of the companies operate wholly in Texas, the oil companies appear to have taken the correct view, but it is curious that they now love State control better than Federal control.

MASTERFULNESS OF PRESIDENTS.

The American Review of Reviews gives us an interesting discussion of the above subject, having in mind the positiveness and insistence of President Taft in connection with the reciprocity legislation now pending in Congress. From the magazine editorial referred to we take this:

"Every President begins by intending to do his own work in the precise constitutional way, and leave Congress to act upon its own judgment and initiative. We have had no more striking example of this than was afforded by President Cleveland, who began with the strictest views os to the nature of a President's duties—and who, later on, in pursuance of what he believed to be public necessity, developed into the masterful ruler, laying the heavy hand of authority upon House and Senate. Mr. Taft did not quite realize, in the Spring of 1909, that it was for him to formulate and represent the large national point of view. This was for the simple reason that every Congressman and Senator was subjected to so much pressure from his own district or State that it was well nigh impossible for the two great tariff-making committees to rise to the high demands of the situation. This is not in criticism of Mr. Taft, because his position in 1909 was a perfectly clear one, while his totally different attitude and method in 1911 have grown out of exigencies that are in every way also accountable and clear."

When is a man masterful, anyhow? Why he is masterful when he plans largely and boldly and succeeds in winning over or breaking down opposition. If he fails, he takes his rank among the discredited.

When President Taft started out with his reciprocity campaign he was largely in the minority, but he began it by doing things on his own hook and apparently is now winning out in Congress. He seems to have had the preponderance of public approval, and perhaps that is why Congress is coming his way, since politicians generally are not going in the face of public opinion if they know it. However, if the President has forced Congress to act contrary to the public will, we would have public approval if we were to have said he is "winning out over a servile majority in Congress". It is owing to the view point as to whether the people think a man is masterful or simply a dictator.

When President Taft formulated his reciprocity programme it was an offset to the effect of the Democratic victory on the question of a lower tariff. He agreed to a treaty with Canada and got up just such a reciprocity bill as he and his advisers wanted, but he never has told who helped him out with it. He just submitted it to Congress and demanded that it should be accepted without amendment. He has even threatened vetoes, as a coercive measures, and Representatives and Senators who think more of Federal patronage and the favor of the Administration than they do of reciprocity are standing by the President for reciprocity—just as he wanted it and is insisting on having it to suit his own methods. He denied Republican interference in the way of amendments. He denied Democratic interference in the way of amendments. In effect, he just simply has announced to both parties in Congress that they haven't got a bit of business amending what he has cut out for them to do.

All he expects of them is to vote just as he wants them to do. It is absolutely sure that he will run the thing right on over both Republicans and Democrats, in spite of a few presumptious Congressmen and Senators who thought they had a right to have some share in arranging reciprocity with Canada. He is whipping the fight, for no one dares to offer an amendment to the McCall bill as it is being forced right on to its passage. It is true, about all the Democrats thought the bill needed amending, yet they didn't dare to amend it, but got up a side issue in the shape of the farmers' free list which will soon be buried without a shroud. If the President would get behind that free list like he has reciprocity, and ride it through, it would look like he intends to even up favors with the Democrats for supporting reciprocity, but up to date the President has not manifested any intense anxiety over the free list.

Nevertheless, President Taft has acted in a masterful way. He started out as a tender-foot and let Aldrich and the stand-patters run the caboose over him, but, having seen how he played thunder with his ducks, he took up his "Only Hope" and played the masterful role right along. He ought have known beforehand that a President who would get strenuous would have his own way, and we are here to say that, if, when the tariff bill was up for passage, he had displayed some rigidity of back-bone he could have put Payne, Aldrich and Smoot in their little trundlebeds. However, the President learned a little lesson, so he has latterly acquired sufficient spinal column to stand out against Republicans and Democrats if need be.

On account of this precedent, we rule that no Democrat and no Republican who approves the way Taft has dictated to Congress, has any right to offer a motion involving the dictatorship of Col. Bryan. Of course, a dictator is not a dictator unless he succeeds in having his own way, for when a man dictates and his dictation is successfully resented and thrown out on the junk pile, he assumes the attitude of a suggester.

The only reason Taft will not be called a dictator is because people approve his course. The Nebraskan is not a dictator to those who approve his course. Just as soon as the Nebraskan will insist on his will and have it done, he will be put right in the "masterful" class. If he should ever win and be "masterful" he can take our word for it that men who are now giving him the boot will crawl right up to his feet with their back up for a pat and the other part of their anatomy making a trail like a watermelon.

PREMATURE ONSLAUGHT.

One of our State exchanges remarked a few days ago that most of the paper of the State have "condemned" Senator Simmons for voting for a seven per cent. duty on lumber and for his vote against reciprocity with Canada. Probably many papers have differed with Senator Simmons instead of condemning him. A difference of opinion and condemnation are two different things. We hardly think many papers will really "condemn" Senators Simmons and Overman and nine Democratic Congressmen for voting for a 7 per cent. tariff duty on lumber, and certainly Senator Simmons' long and valuable services to his State and party far outweigh any mistake of judgment he may or may not have made in voting against reciprocity. Reciprocity will never be worth to North Carolina what Senator Simmons has been worth to the State, and if the opponents of Simmons are going to submit to the voters the question of reciprocity or Simmons, they will be pretty apt not to take reciprocity in theirs. If Senator Simmons is to be defeated by any one of the able gentlemen in the field, it will be on their merits and not for what some of the newspapers are lugging into this contest.

Of course, if Senator Simmons deserved any of these newspaper attacks it would be a different matter, but whoever else we may favor for the Senate, let us give Senator Simmons a square deal. Let North Carolina Democrats see that this loyal Democrat and useful representative of this State in the United States Senate gets a square deal. Let us see that Ex-Governor Aycock, Governor Kitchin and Judge Clark also get a square deal. The Senatorship does not belong to any man, and it is honorable in any able North Carolinian to aspire to it, but it is the prerogative of the fair-minded voters of the State to deal with their high aspirations on their merits, leaving severely alone the small prejudices and inconsequential things that belittle the men who build frog houses in the sand and think they are lion dens. We have no doubt some men opposed to some of the other candidates will also attempt to make mountains out of molehills, but what the Democratic press of this State should do for the good of the party is to aid in minimizing the influence of those who never lose the opportunity to shoot wild.

We regret, however, that quite a number of the Democratic press has started something and persists in it. Of course, if there are any newspapers which seize this opportunity, to deliberately do harm to the party, it is pie for them, and if those newspapers which have honestly taken up the cudgels and waded in regardless of consequences believe they can suppress a conflagration after they start it, all well and good. Nevertheless, we haven't the slightest idea that they are capable of it, for we have seen them try it and fail. We say now with fear of successful contradiction that the Democratic press of North Carolina was responsible for Populism and Republican-Populist fusion which disgraced the State and from the evil influences of which it took Furnifold M. Simmons, Charles B. Aycock, Robert B. Glenn and other patriotic Democrats and loyal North Carolinians to make a fight that redeemed North Carolina from a condition that caused the sons who love her to hang their heads in shame and contemplate it with a mixture of despair and desperation. It was desperation that won under the leadership of just such men as Simmons, and for one paper in North Carolina, The Star considers it bad politics to heap condemnation upon a distinguished Democrat for any one or even more mistakes of judgment. We can differ with men in opinion but until they become venal, corrupt or untrustworthy they do not deserve the harsh criticism of men who stood shoulder to shoulder with them when they almost sweated blood in a cause which should ever live in the heart of every man who loves his State. We believe in awarding any man a thousand fold more for his devotion to North Carolina than punishment for disloyalty to the wholly Republican measure of reciprocity with Canada, or for his bad or good judgment touching such a small matter as a seven per cent. duty on lumber.

A Wisconsin woman, satisfied that women will soon be permitted to vote in that State, has refused to sew on buttons, darn socks, or do the cooking. She ought to know, however, that what she will be able to get for her vote won't enable her to be independent of the old man.

It is admitted now, we believe, and pretty widely, that Gov. Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, is a presidential possibility, the editor of Harper's Weekly going so far as to say that he "will be the democratic nominee as surely as this is a hot day"—and this was said when the thermometer registered nearly a hundred in New York. Other editors of probably more judicial balance than Col. Harvey, while not so positive, are sure at least that Wilson will be a formidable candidate before the democratic convention, and that if nominated his election will be practically assured. Because of this very general assent to Mr. Wilson's possible descendancy, many newspapers and some public men are making comparisons between his uttered views on public issues and the fads advocated by Mr. Bryan, the object being to associate the two in the public mind as being of the same mould and, therefore, to create a popular feeling that he is unsafe and unsound. A more shocking injustice could hardly be done Mr. Wilson than the continued attempt to spread such a notion.—Chattanooga Times.

WHITEVILLE HAPPENINGS.

Prisoner Makes His Escape—Superior Court Convenes—Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., July 17.—There was quite an exciting little time in Whiteville Saturday. N. A. Franks, a white man who had lived at Artesia, Cronly and other points in this section and is now a resident of Makatoka, was brought before Magistrate Bruce Pierce charged with disposing of mortgaged property, and other indictments.

They were in the law office of Hon. Donald McRackan, when Franks stated that he wanted to step out a few moments. No objection was made to this request, when he went into the stables of Dr. H. B. Maxwell, near at hand, and bolting through a window made a dash for liberty. The news of the prisoner's escape was soon heralded and Marshal Thompson brought his dogs and put them on the trail, but Franks had gotten clear away. Magistrate Pierce says he has no doubt about arresting his man again, as he has family ties at Makatoka and he will doubtless go back home.

Mrs. Maury Stanley died at her home in Vineland on Friday evening last and was buried in the Whiteville cemetery. She was a daughter of the late R. B. Thomas, who lived about five miles from Vineland. The deceased had been sick for some two years with consumption, her entire family, with the exception of one sister, dying with that dread disease. She leaves a husband, but no children.

Mr. Meredith, postal clerk on the Coast Line out of Wilmington, was in Whiteville yesterday on a visit to his sister, Mrs. T. S. Memory.

The July term of Superior Court convened in Whiteville this morning. There are three murder cases to try and a large volume of other business There will be a two weeks' term.

The Fair Bluff tobacco market will open on the 20th. There are five indepnedent buyers and the town is determined on getting a full share of the tobacco produced. The crop will be much larger that at first thought.

The young daughter of Mr. D. J. Lewis, who was operated on for appendicitis in the hospital at Fayetteville, is getting along just as nicely as possible. Mrs. Walter Smith, who was operated on in the James Walker Memorial Hospital, has completely recovered and is able to resume her household duties.

Mrs. J. Z. Mims and little son leave tomorrow to spend several weeks at Myrtle Beach.——Miss Mary C. Pitts says she has no intention of taking a music class at Whiteville, as she has several other fine offers.——Hon. J. R. Williamson has returned from several days' visit to Florence, S. C.

KILLED IN TEXAS.

Mr. James Swann Run Over By Train Near El Paso.

Relatives in the city received the news Sunday of the death of Mr. Jas. C. Swann, son of Mrs. Rebecca M. Swann, of No. 315 Walnut street, which occurred on the track of the Texas Pacific Railway between El Paso and Fort Bliss, Texas. Mr. Swann was a private in Company E, 23rd United States Infantry and was stationed at Fort Bliss, which is about eight miles from El Paso.

The first telegram contained scant information as to how the young man met his death and Mayor Joseph D. Smith, who is related to the deceased, wired for full particulars. Yesterday he received the following:

"El Paso, Texas, July 16, 1911.

"Mayor Jos. D. Smith, Wilmington, N. C.

"Reference to your wire date, Privates Swann and Rigsby were found shortly before 3 A. M. on the Texas Pacific, towards El Paso. Swann was dead. Rigsby seriously injured. They had been struck by an engine. A board of officers have been convened to examine the cause of the death and their report will be sent to you. Body was so badly mutilated as to make it impossible to embalm. Full military funeral tomorrow.

"PRICE."

Private Swann had been in the army three years and his time would have expired in September. He would have been 30 years of age September 7th. Prior to his elistment Mr. Swann was a railroad engineer in the emplov of the Coast Line.

Surviving Mr. Swann are a mother, Mrs. Rebecca M. Swann, several sisters, Mrs. W. W. Smith, of Charlotte; Miss Ethel Swann, Mrs. Anna Reston Petteway, Miss Lucy Swann, Miss Josephine Swann, Miss Isabella Swann, all of this city, and one brother, Mr. John Q. Swann, also of Wilmington. He was also a second cousin of Mayor Joseph D. Smith, and W. L. Smith, Esq.

Mr. Swann had many friends in this city, all of whom will deeply sympathize with the bereaved in their sorrow.

DISCUSS DIFFERENT PAVINGS

Property Owners of Front Street Address City Council As to Their Preference Along This Line.

For the purpose of hearing the views of the property owners along Front street an other citizens of the city, in regard to the different forms of paving material which are being considered for the permanent improvement of the thoroughfares, the City Council met in special session yesterday morning at 10 o'clock with Mayor Joseph B. Smith presiding and all members, with the exception of Councilman W. E. Perdew, attending.

About 70 property holders on Front street were present and a number of them made short talks, some advocating a special form of paving and others merely stating that they wanted to see the best grade, whatever material was used, and asked that the Council not let the initial cost of the material influence them in their decision.

After Mayor Smith had called the meeting to order and stated that five minutes should be enough time for each one present to state his views fully, Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer, in reply to a request, said that the city engineer had made the following calculations as to the total cost of improving the streets, under the different bids submitted:

Granotoid, $38,000; sheet asphalt, $49,000; bithulithic, $51,000; vitrified brick, on concrete foundation, $55,000; vitrified brick on sand foundation, $43,000; wooden blocks, $65,000; asphalt blocks, $66,000.

Mr. M. W. Jacobi led off for the property owners. He referred to a meeting of those owning property on Front street, held recently to consider the paving question. Mr. Jacobi stated that he was anxious to see the best form of paving that could be had used on the principal thoroughfare of the city and declared that mistakes could sometimes be made by considering the first cost too seriously. He declared that each material had its good points but that personally he favored wooden blocks for such a street as Front. He understood that they were being used in many of the principal cities of this, as well as in other countries, and that they were giving almost universal satisfaction. Mr. Jacobi concluded his remarks by heartily endorsing wood blocks as the proper paving for Front street.

Mr. W. E. Springer spoke next, championing the cause of vitrified brick. Mr. Springer declared that this material is cheaper, easier repaired and has a longer life than the wood blocks. In regard to noise Mr. Springer believed that it was a good idea to have some noise on a business street. Mr. Springer closed after making an earnest plea that the city be given a vitrified brick paving.

Mr. Hugh MacRae advocated the use of wooden blocks. He stated that he was chairman of streets when some of the present brick pavings were laid and that naturally, he might be suppose to substantiate his former position by giving brick his support this time, but that such was not the case. He declared that the streets over which the heaviest traffic of the world was moved were paved with wood blocks, citing the streets of London as the first and lower Broadway, New York City as the second. If Wilmington chose wood blocks, he said, she would only be following the example of the foremost cities of the world. In comparing the wood and asphalt blocks he argued that wood was a non conductor, while the asphalt acted as a storage battery for the heat, and as Wilmington was a Summer city for at least six months out of the 12 asphalt was not a desirable material. In addition to the other points in its favor, Mr. MacRae declared that wood was almost noiseless and that it lasts nearly as long as brick. Furthermore, Mr. MacRae said, there was a chance to develop a home industry in the manufacture of wood blocks later on and this reason should have some effect on the decision of Council. Mr. MacRae believed that a very fine grade of wood blocks could be made from the short-leaf pine of this section, as he understood a soft wood was what was wanted. Mr. MacRae also referred to the limestone quarry which is operated by the city in substantiation of his argument as to home industries. He pointed out the great saving that the city is making in using this home product instead of sending to some other section of the State for it.

Mr. L. Stein said that he was not qualified to state which was the most desirable material, but that he wished to urge upon Council the importance of choosing a pavement that would be as noiseless as possible.

Dr. Russell Bellamy, who stated that he appeared not as a property owner but as one who had at heart the interest of Wilmington, wanted to substantiate what Mr. MacRae had said in regard to the desirable features of wood blocks. He cited his experience in New York City, where he lived for 18 years, and stated that the wood blocks give the most perfect pavements there. He differed with Mr. McRae, though, as to the question of soft wood making a good block, stating that he understood it was just the opposite. But this, he declared, made no difference in the matter in the light of a home industry, for we have one of the hardest woods known growing in profusion in this section. This wood is the black gum, and the doctor stated that he could see no reason why it could not be utilized.

Stating that he had done some investigating lately, and had read up on the question, Mr. T. W. Wood advocated the wood blocks first and asphalt blocks second. He declared that all large cities were using wood blocks and that long leaf pine was being shipped from the South and manufactured into this form of paving material.

Mr. I. Shrier was very much in favor of vitrified brick. He pointed out the fact that the small patch of wood block paving on Fourth street, between Princess and Market, had never been satisfactory, its slippery qualities being a great drawback.

Mr. Wood declared that this wood block manufactured by a little sawmill that had never attempted anything of the kind before and that it had not been put down by experts.

Mr. MacRae declared that the paving had held its own better than any other material in use in Wilmington at the present time in spite of these facts. He believed that it was no credit to anyone, but that it served to show the durability of wood block paving.

Mr. J. M. Solky wanted to know the life of the wood block paving. In reply Councilman P. Q. Moore read from a book on engineering matters that the wood block ranks last in every feature as a desirable paving material. Mr. Jacobi asked the date of the book, and Mr. Moore answered that it was published in 1908.

In reply to a question from Mayor Smith, City Engineer F. F. Pillet stated that Mobile, Ala., was using nothing else but wood blocks now and when asked in regard to the life of the material he informed the gathering that no repairs had been made on the Mobile streets since the pavement was laid six years ago.

Councilman P. Q. Moore was asked to make report of his trip, which he made recently to inspect the different pavings used in Northern cities. Mr. Moore stated that he saw many different kinds of pavings and that it would be a hard matter to say which was the best. However, he stated, the fire chiefs with whom he conversed in regard to the subject all stated that they would drive several blocks out of their way in order to avoid a street paved with wood blocks because of the slipperiness. He told of Market street, Philadelphia, which is paved with wood blocks, saying that it was a beautiful street early in the mornings, but that after the sun had shone on it for several hours the oil oozing out of the wood made it very disagreeable. He declared that Mr. MacRae was too big a man to ask the city to spend money at home when they could do better somewhere else. As a property owner, a tax payer and a representative of the people of the city he wanted to see the very best possible material used, but that this material must be of such a nature that would permit of its easy removal and repairment, for the street would have to be torn up sooner or later on account of the sewerage condition. Mr. Moore seemed to think vitrified brick the most satisfactory pavement for Front street, especially when the question of removing and repairing was considered.

Mr. MacRae stated that the Councilman's argument was very sound, and a little later in the meeting he arose and announced that after thinking over Councilman Moore's remarks he wished to withdraw his advocacy of wood blocks and that he would be satisfied with whatever other good material was chosen. He still contended that the limestone rock from the local quarry was an excellent material for foundation work for the pavement on Front street, and also that it was a good material for macadam roads over which he and Councilman P. Q Moore had disagreed in a good natured way.

Mr. Chas. N. Evans inquired as to what material was used in Jacksonville, Fla. Councilman Moore replied that that city recently awarded a $300,000 contract for vitrified brick paving, and that Greenville, S. C., and Asheville, N. C., were also using the vitrified brick.

Mr. A. B. Skelding announced that as a representative of the traction company he was only interested inso far that he wanted a pavement that could easily be taken up and repaired. He advocated vitrified brick as his first choice and wood blocks as second, declaring that the bricks were more easily replaced.

Former Mayor Wm. E. Springer brought out a point here that had not been touched on before. He declared that the wood block was the most unsanitary of all paving materials.

Mr. Wood called attention to the fact that the brick used in Jacksonville would be set up on end, instead of on edge, and that would be very expensive.

It was at this juncture that Mr. MacRae withdrew his endorsement of wood blocks. He stated, however, that he would like to see the wood blocks experimented with on several blocks of the city, which would not have to be torn up on account of the sewers. He declared that he would not care to see any costly experiments tried on on a street which would have to be torn up soon.

Mr. Chas. N. Evans declared in favor of a pavement that could be washed clean. He did not believe that this was the case with wood block paving.

Mr. J. H. Hinton advocated asphalt, declaring that bricks were too noisy for a narrow street like Front.

Mr. Martin O'Brien declared in favor of a pavement as noiseless as possible, and stated that the city ought to put down the best possible pavement, regardless of the initial cost.

Mr. Chas. E. Taylor, Jr., also made a talk in this vein, stating that the best was none too good for Wilmington, and asked the Council not to consider the initial cost.

Mayor Smith also declared along this line, saying that most any of the materials under consideration would make a good street provided they were of the best grade. He believed in getting the best material and having the best possible work done in laying the street, regardless of cost.

Mr. William Struthers, Jr., inquired as to what the city would do when the street car people and other public service interests wanted to repair streets unless a material was chosen that could be easily replaced.

Mr. Skelding declared that the city might be ever so particular in this matter, but that sooner or later the streets would be torn up at the request of the people and that under Mr. Moore's plan this could be easily done.

Mr. L. H. Skinner declared himself in favor of using asphalt blocks.

After the property owners had concluded their statements, Capt. Thos. D. Meares stated that in the work of constructing the sidewalks, for which the abutting property owners are to pay, that it might be desirable to let the city contract for the whole unbroken sidewalk and then assess each property owner his pro rata part. It is likely that some action will be taken in this matter, for the suggestion seemed to find favor with those present.

Among the property owners who appeared at the meeting yesterday were former Mayor William E. Springer, Messrs. L. H. Burnett, Wm. Struthers, Jr., M. O'Brien, J. H. Hinton, L. H. Skinner, F. L. Huggins, I. Shrier, T. W. Wood, W. A. Dick, M. W. Jacobi, L. Stein, Chas. E. Taylor, Jr., D. McEachern, and Chas. N. Evans.

Tomorrow afternoon Council will meet in special session to award the contract for the paving.

MILLION DOLLAR INCREASE

Valuation of Property in New Hanover County Forges Ahead of What It Was Last Year—Equalization Board Meets.

Approximately one million dollars is the increase in valuation of the taxable property in New Hanover county over last year, according to the new assessment, and the greater portion of this gain is in the county outside of Wilmington and the cause is assigned by Chairman Duncan McEachern, of the Board of County Commissioners, to the good roads which penetrate every section of the county save Federal Point, where the gain was not more than one-third what is shown in other townships.

The increase in the rural districts is about 15 per cent. greater than in the city, according to the figures as they appear now and it is not thought that they will be materially changed by the Equalization Board, which was in session practically all day yesterday and meets again this afternoon. The gain in the rural districts where there are good roads is from 30 to 40 per cent., it is said. A good road is being rapidly built to Federal Point and in a few years property in that township will be enhanced to several times it's present value. The total increase for the county may go slightly over one million dollars for the year. The exact figures will not be obtainable for some days yet.

The Board of Equalization met at 11 o'clock yesterday morning at the Court House. Chairman McEachern presided with all members of the County Commissioners present except Commissioner Vollers and there was present also Mr. Thos. F. Bagley, County Assessor. The board is composed of the commissioners and the assessor. Mr. John Haar, Register of Deeds, acted as clerk to the body. The purpose of the meeting was to hear any complaints of property owners who consider the assessment of their property too high, the increases having been published in The Star Sunday morning, and also to increase any pieces of property the valuation of which is considered too low.

There were not a great many people before the board, therefore it is taken for granted that most of the property owners are satisfied with the assessment as it stands. The first matter to claim the attention of the body with reference to the valuation of the property known as the A. G. Latta land in Cape Fear township and now owned by Mr. M. J. Heyer, containing 1,125 acres. It was ordered that the valuation of this property be changed from $15,000 to $10 an acre or $11,250, it having been shown that it was assessed on a wrong basis and not on a parity with other property similarly situated. It was ordered that the Schloss cottage, on Wrightsville Beach, assessed against Mr. S. A. Schloss be changed to Ocean View Co. as owner of the cottage. The property of Mr. Louis H. Skinner, in block 99, on river front, was reduced from $7,400 to $3,000, on the ground that the marine railway, situated on the property is practically worthless. Property in Harnett township of J. B. Dempsey was reduced in valuation to $500, while the property of Mr. C. W. Polvogt, on Wrightsville Sound, was increased to $1,500. On the representation that a large portion of the land is under water is therefore practically valueless, the valuation of the property of J. F. Garrell & Co., in Cape Fear township, was reduced from $4,700 to $4,000. This represents the work of the morning session of the board, when a recess was taken until 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

At the afternoon session the entire board was present as well as the County Assessor. It was ordered that the assessment against the Hilton Lumber Co., in Cape Fear township, be abated, the same having been listed in Wilmington township. Mr. Clayton Giles, Sr., asked that the assessment on two pieces of property at Greenville Sound be reduced. One is a tract upon which is located a residence. The board declined to consider a reduction of the valuation of the residence property, members stating that should there be a change they would vote in favor of an increase. The assessment of the other property was referred to the township assessor for consideration. The manager of the Camp Lumber Co., asked that the assessment of the plant just above Hilton be reduced from $60,000, which is the valuation of the plant when it was operated by the Angola Lumber Co. The plant was purchased at a receiver's sale some months ago for about $29,000 and the company thought the property should be listed for taxation at a figure not exceeding that amount. Allowing something for depreciation of machinery, the board voted to decrease the assessment to $50,000.

Shortly after 1 o'clock the board adjourned to meet again this afternoon at 3 o'clock, when the work of equalizing the valuations will be resumed.

WRIGHTSBORO CHURCH.

New House of Worship Dedicated to Service of God.

The handsome new meeting house of the Wrightsboro Baptist church, which was organized about two years ago by Rev. J. W. Jones, of Salemburg, who has been its pastor since, was dedicated with appropriate ceremonies Sunday. Rev. Mr. Smith, of Danville, Va., preached the dedicatory sermon at 11 o'clock and after a basket dinner served in the grove by the people of the community, an afternoon service was held at which the deacons for the new church were ordained. The deacons are: Messrs. W. T. Ritter, W. D. Rhodes and P. J. Dempsey. Rev. C. F. Whitlock, pastor of Brooklyn Baptist church, Wilmington, delivered an address on the qualifications and duties of the deacons and Rev. W. G. Hall spoke on the duty of the church to the deacons. All the services were attended by large congregations, quite a number being present from Wilmington. The new building, costing about $2,500, is dedicated free from debt and the church is prospering in every way.

WEIGHTY MATTERS ARE UP

Council Will Wrestle With Sewerage Question Latter Part of the Week—Free Ferry Proposition Comes Next.

The City Council has some far-reaching and momentous matters for its consideration this week. Aside from the selection of the kind of material to be used in the improvement of Front street and the award of the contract for the work, the Councilmen will undertake to settle definitely the sewerage question—determine for all whether or not the city will purchase the existing plant or any part thereof, or establish an out and out new system. It is one of the biggest questions with which the body has to deal and final action will be awaited with interest by every citizen, for it is a matter of vital importance to the entire city.

The regular weekly meeting of the Council will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at which the cow will hold the center of the stage—that is, those who are opposed to the cow ordinance which goes into effect on July 25th will petition the Council for certain changes in the law and in case the request is not granted the idea is to call for an election and let the people say whether or not the cows shall be driven from the territory named in the ordinance. It is said that the petition will contain more than enough names to secure an election on the question. This probably is the most important matter to come before the meeting this afternoon. Tomorrow afternoon the board will meet and determine the kind of paving to be used on Front street and to let the contract for the work.

The street matter out of the way, the body will turn its attention to the sewerage question, which has been hanging fire for several years. Whether or not the Council is willing to take over the present plant at a reasonable figure remains to be seen. The Board of Aldermen declined to purchase the plant and ordered the Water and Sewerage Commission to proceed with the installation of a new system. This was not done, however, and at the last Legislature an act was railroaded through which some lawyers say will affect this city to the extent of compelling the purchase of the existing sewerage system. City Attorney Herbert McClammy takes a contrary view and has advised the Council that the act will not hold in this particular case because bonds for the new plant had already been voted and sold when the act was passed. It is believed that this mooted question will be cleared from the municipal calendar this week.

Next in order most probably is the free ferry proposition. The last Legislature passed an act providing for the establishment of a free ferry on the Cape Fear at Wilmington connecting New Hanover and Brunswick counties—New Hanover and Wilmington to pay 35 per cent. of the cost each and Brunswick to pay the remaining 30 per cent. There is some question as to the legality of the act owing to the fact that the method of raising the revenue to purchase and maintain the ferry was not provided. However, it is believed by a great many that there will be no contest from any quarter. Several persons remarked yesterday that it seems the County Commissioners and Councilmen should get busy on the proposition and either decide to provide the ferry with Brunswick's aid or decide not to provide it. New Hanover county is understood to stand ready and willing to pay over its 35 per cent. of the cast, while the Councilmen appear luke warm on the proposition, due, most people believe, to the several other momentous questions they have to settle in the near future, and advance the opinion that as soon as these other matters are out of the way the free ferry project will receive all the attention it deserves. Word has been received in this city several times to the effect that Brunswick county is ready to pay its portion of the cost.

It was learned yesterday that in a short time the location of the proposed bridge over the Northeast river near Castle Haynes will be decided. Plans for structures at two different places are being prepared and bids will be asked within a few weeks. The bids will determine to a large extent the location of the bridge. Mr. M. W. Divine, of the Board of County Commissioners, who represents New Hanover county on the joint committee with Mr. Armstrong, chairman of the Pender board, expects to go to New York in a few days and while there will visit the office of the Foundation Company and inquire as to the two sets of plans. It is believed that it will not be a great while before actual work on the bridge will be started.

The Worth Company.

Attention has been called to the fact that the item which appeared in this paper last week relative to the institution of the suit of Geo. C. Worth, et al., against W. E. Worth, et al., might cause some misunderstanding with reference to the business of The Worth Company, which is, and expects to be for an indefinite number of years, in an increasing and prosperous condition. The suit referred to is merely an action brought by the heirs of the late D. G. Worth against the heirs of the late B. G. Worth, for the purpose of winding up and settling the old accounts and property of the old firm of Worth & Worth, composed of D. G. Worth, B. G. Worth and C. W. Worth. This statement is made in order that there may be no misunderstanding with reference to the business of The Worth Co., which is understood to be doing a prosperous and satisfactory business, its present officers being: C. W. Worth, president; D. D. Barber, vice president and general manager; E. A. Metts, secretary and treasurer.

Family Excursion Wednesday.

The Family Excursion to Carolina Beach tomorrow will be one of the most delightful and interesting of the season. The public is invited to go on this outing, which will be made especially pleasing by the number of features arranged. The steamer will make three trips to the beach at 8 A. M., 2:30 and 7:30 P. M., with a late boat returning at night.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

An Assorted Array of Drunks Yesterday Morning.

A most bewildering array of drunks faced His Honor, the Recorder, yesterday morning and though there were drunks of all ages, colors and sizes, ranging from the plain ordinary drunk to the roseate hued vision of loveliness and splendor, this fact did not confuse the smooth running wheels of justice in any way whatsoever.

Jim Lowe, colored, found guilty of disorderly conduct, parted with $5 and costs. Ed Austen, colored, charged with violating the driving ordinance, paid the costs. John Moss, white, was found to have been drunk and disorderly and was taxed $5 and the costs, as was Clayton McLaurin, colored, on a similar charge. Glasco Johnson, colored, paid $5 and the costs for fast driving. A number of other drunks, of assorted degrees, paid fine and costs.

A case that may prove of interest is scheduled to come up Wednesday is that against a man by the name of Crouch, who is said to have three aliases, and who was arrested following an alleged statement that if he had a partner with some nerve he could make a lot of money by robbing a number of banks. It is also said that the man boasted of having raised a postoffice money order, and that postoffice inspectors questioned Crouse in regard to this Saturday afternoon. He was drinking when arrested Saturday and this, it is thought, accounts for his statements. However, he is being held and it is very likely that some investigation is being made of his past. He claims to be an optician and says that his household furniture is being shipped here from Columbia, S. C., and that he formerly lived in Charlotte.

Fifth Street Property.

Ex-Sheriff Frank H. Stedman, of Fayetteville, and others in interest, have closed a trade, subject to approval of title, with Mr. E. E. David, of the A. David Company, for the property, 111 South Fifth street, between Dock and Orange. The price has not transpired. Size of lot, 36 1-2x 165 feet.

Annual Fish Fry.

The public is invited to attend the fish fry at Mr. Mason's on Middle Sound, on July 27th. Refreshments will be served on the ground. Lemonade will be free. A very large crowd is expected. There will be swimming, baseball and other diversions.

—Mr. G. W. Harrelson, of Fynston, was in the city yesterday, en route to Asheville and other points in the western part of the State, where he will spend several weeks.

WATER IS EXONERATED.

Also Milk and Ice as Factors in Causing the Sickness.

Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, city superintendent of health, stated yesterday that the health department knows positively that the recent sickness which occurred in the city was not caused by either the water, milk or ice. The real cause of the sickness, according to Dr. Nesbitt, has been the surface closet and the fly.

However, Dr. Nesbitt still considers it a wise precaution to boil all water and milk for domestic purposes. City Engineer F. F. Pillett was engaged yesterday in surveying that section of the city bounded by Orange, Market and Third streets and the Cape Fear river, with a view to relaying the drain pipes in the streets and alleys. This work will be done to perfect the system so that all surface water will drain off swiftly and also to put an end to the ancient custom of establishing surface closets over the drains. Dr. Nesbitt states that this has been the custom of this district, and he declares that this has been a large factor in making this section probably the filthiest and most unsanitary district of the city.

SUNDAY BIG DAY AT BEACHES

Singing of Mrs. Pearson a Delightful Feature, which was Heard by Hundreds—Unusually Large Crowds.

Aside from the unusually large number of people who were the guests of the hotels there, and the many who also went out from the city to spend the day, or part of it, the feature of Sunday at Wrightsville Beach was the singing of Mrs. Frank Pearson, the noted soprano, who is now filling an engagement at the Grand Theatre. Mrs. Pearson sang at both the afternoon and evening concerts at Lumina, and also at the concert at the Seashore Hotel. Mrs. Pearson has a voice of wonderful sweetness and it is exceptionally trained.

While here, Mrs. Pearson is a guest at The Seashore Hotel, and Mr. Edgar L. Hinton, manager of the hotel, extended her an invitation to sing at the regualr concert on Sunday. She graciously accepted and her selections were heard with delight by the hundreds of guests at the popular hostelry. She was encored repeatedly and she gracefully responded several times. Mrs. Pearson was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Harry Linden and on the violin by Mr. Linden. Another feature of the delightful musical programme was the instrumental solo by Mr. Linden, accompanied by Mrs. Linden. The concert was one of the most enjoyable of the season.

At Lumina Mrs. Pearson sang at both the afternoon and the evening concerts, delighting the hundreds who flocked to the handsome pavilion with her splendid vocal renditions. She was on the programme for only two numbers, one for each concert, but the repeated encores which greeted her selection of the evening, brought forth two more beautiful solos. It is said the audience of Sunday evening was probably the largest that has attended any Sunday evening concert of the season, and this can readily be believed, for aside from the many who went out from the city there were several hundred guests from the hotels who went up especially to hear Mrs. Pearson sing. Aside from this delightful feature, though, the concert was well worth hearing, one of the most attractive programmes of the season being rendered.

At the Oceanic Hotel, too, a splendid programme was rendered at the usual Sunday concert by the Asbury orchestra, and, needless to say, it was appreciated by the many guests of this splendid hotel.

In addition to the musical attractions of the day, Sunday was marked by many other pleasurable features for which the resort is so well known. Probably more people went in surf bathing during the afternoon hours than on any previous Sunday of the present season. At some places the surf was fairly crowded with the happy bathers, and from the Oceanic Hotel to Lumina the surf was literally dotted with them. Then, too, there were several sailing and launch parties during the afternoon and evening, and these were vastly enjoyed by those who participated.

It is estimated that between 900 and 1,000 people from nearby points took advantage of the reduced Sunday rates and came in to spend the day on the coast. However, Wrightsville Beach did not get all the pleasure seekers, for many of them went to Carolina Beach. The steamer Wilmington made three trips to the pier and one of the largest crowds of the season spent the day at this ever popular resort.

BIG SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING

Convention of the Wilmington Baptist Association Will be Held Next Week at Atkinson for Three Days.

The Sunday School convention of the Wilmington Baptist Association will be held with the Baptist church at Atkinson beginning Friday, July 28th, and continuing for three days. LOCAL CASES IN PENDER

Dick Gause and J. E. Tisdal Will Be Placed on Trial at Burgaw Today—Garfield Ford Probably Comes Next.

Primarily for the purpose of trying the two murder cases removed from New Hanover county, a special term of Pender county Superior Court convened at Burgaw yesterday morning with Judge Garland S. Ferguson, of Waynesville, one of the leading jurists on the bench, presiding. The day was spent in the trial of several minor cases on the Pender docket and this morning the trial of the case against Dick Gause for the murder of Ned Gibson and J. E. Tisdale as accessory will be begun.

It will be recalled that Gibson was shot and almost instantly killed some months ago by Dick Gause following a night of revelry and most probably gambling. Several negro women appeared on the scene at the time of the shooting and may have had something to do with the affair. It is claimed that Gibson was under the influence of cocaine at the time and that when he was searched at the jail a few hours later a bottle of cocaine was found in one of his pockets. Tisdal is charged with having been an accessory after the fact and was not arrested until some time after Gause was captured by the police.

Gause had engaged L. Clayton Grant, Esq., of this city, to appear for him, but when the case was called yesterday morning the attorney asked to be allowed to withdraw from the case, and J. T. Bland, Esq., was appointed by the court to appear for the negro. K. C. Sidbury, Esq., will represent Tisdal and believes that he will be able to acquit him of any connection with the murder.

When this case has been disposed of, Garfield Ford, colored, will be tried on the charge of killing his wife in this city a few months ago. He found the woman in company with another man and shot her, death ensuing instantly.

The negroes were taken to Burgaw yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriff Harvey Cox and Jailer J. M. Branch. The officers returned to the city last night and Officer Cox will go back to Burgaw today, having been summoned by Solicitor Henry E. Shaw as a witness for the State in the case against Gause. Last night Officer Cox summoned a number of witnesses in the two cases, Viola Sterling and Fannie MacRae, both of whom witnessed the trouble, were subpoenaed as witnesses for the State in the Gause case, while several witnesses were also summoned in the Ford case.

Receives Fine Appointment.

News has been received in this city with great pleasure by many friends that Mr. John S. Armstrong, Jr., formerly of this city, has been appointed as one of the four consular assistants in the American consulate at Cork, Ireland, with which he has been connected for the past two years. The appointment is one which is always much desired by the young attaches in the consular office. Mr. Armstrong is 23 years old and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Armstrong, who removed from this city to Baltimore, Md., several years ago. He was educated at Woodbury Forest, Philips Extere Academy and the University of North Carolina.

Real Estate Transfers.

LOCAL DOTS.

——The new Summer uniforms for the police department arrived a few days ago and are being worn by the city's finest. The patrolmen are wearing helmets and the officers caps this Summer.

—Mr. Geo. W. Huggins, the well known jeweler at No. 108 Market street, is making a run on eye glasses this week, having made arrangements with a specialist to test eyes free and furnish lenses at $1 a pair. This offer is good for the remainder of the week only.

——Mr. W. D. MacMillan, Jr., was arrested yesterday on a warrant sworn out by Sheriff S. P. Cowan, charging him with exceeding the speed limit in an automobile Sunday afternoon through Delgado village. He was recognized to appear before Justice Geo. Harriss this morning.

——Chair car service was inaugurated on the A. & Y. between Wilmington and Sanford Sunday morning, on the train leaving here at 8:45 o'clock. The train arriving here at 8:05 P. M. will also have a chair car. The new service will doubtless be appreciated by the traveling public.

——Friends of Mr. S. Einstein, who was injured Saturday night when he was struck by a street car, will regret to learn that he is not getting along so well. It was said last night that he had been unconscious ever since Sunday morning and that his left side is paralyzed from the injury.

—Charged with the larceny of a new suit of clothes from Louis Howard, a Greek in a store at Fourth and Campbell streets, John Smith, colored, was arrested yesterday morning by Patrolman H. G. Bullard and will be given hearing before the Recorder today. The negro had the clothes in his possession when arrested.

—Mr. Henry Jordan, the carpenter who was painfully injured late Saturday afternoon when he was jammed between a wagon and a surry in front of Quinlivan's blacksmithshop, No. 106 North Second street, was able to be out for a short while yesterday, though still suffering greatly, especially from the sprain in the neck.

——Property on the north side of Chesnut, between Third and Fourth streets, known as the Johnson estate, was sold at public auction at the Court House yesterday at noon, being bid in by Mr. H. F. Wilder for $6,825. Mr. Wilder owns the property on the northeast corner of Third and Chesnut streets, and the property acquired yesterday adjoins that of his residence.

TWO NICE RESIDENCES.

Permits Recently Issued from Office of Building Inspector.

Several building permits have recently been issued from the office of the building inspector, Chief Chas. Schnibben, of the Fire Department, and considerable amount of building and repair work is going on in the city. Dr. Frank H. Russell has been given a permit to build a handsome home on Third, next to the First Presbyterian church, between Dock and Orange streets. The estimated cost of the residence is $10,000. Mr. J. H. Niggel secured a permit to build a nice home on Fifth, between Wainut and Red Cross streets, the estimated cost being $3,000.

COTTON WEAK AND UNSETTLED

Caused by General Liquidation and Bear Pressure Inspired by Favorable Crop Reports—Market Closed Easy.

New York, July 17.—The cotton market was weak and unsettled during today's trading, under general liquidation and bear pressure, inspired by favorable weather reports, favorable trade advices, easy Liverpool cables and a bearish private crop condition report. July held pretty well on a little support from the bull brokers in the absence of offerings, but later positions broke severely and the market closed easy at practically the lowest point of the day, with July showing a net loss of only six points, while later months were from 14 to 21 points under the final figures of Saturday. The market opened steady, at an advance of one point on near months, but generally 2 to 7 points lower under liquidation by Saturday's buyers, who were evidently impressed by the relatively easy showing of Liverpool. A continuation of showery weather in the western belt and a private report making the condition of the crop 88 per cent., against 89 per cent., as reported by the same authority toward the end of July, and 87.5 per cent. during the middle of June. Increasing receipts of new crop cotton in the southwest seemed to be encouraging sales of August, and while July held steady all later deliveries worked off from the opening figures during the early trading. Rallies of from 2 to 3 points occurred from the lowest during the middle of the day, but the South was a steady seller, detailed weather reports were considered favorable, the trade anticipated a bearish weekly weather report tomorrow. At any rate, the market became very weak, during the afternoon; a decline into new low ground uncovered stop loss orders and October contracts sold at 12.52, before the close, or about 47 points under the higher level of July and about 127 points below the high price touched during the middle of June. Reports of a cut in the price of a leading brand of cotton goods had an unfavorable effect on sentiment during the day.

Receipts today, 565 bales, against 1,318 last week and 10,330 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 250 bales, against 1,064 last year, and at Houston 488 bales, against 407 last year. Spot closed quiet, 5 points, lower; middling uplands, 14.25; middling gulf, 14.50; sales, 3,900.

Futures opened steady and closed steady.

Kill More Than Wild Beasts.

The number of people killed yearly by wild beasts don't approach the vast number killed by disease germs. No life is safe from their attacks. They're in air, water, dust, even food. But grand protection is afforded by Electric Bitters, which destroy and expel these deadly disease germs from the system. That's why chills, fever and ague, all malarial and many blood diseases yield promptly to this wonderful blood purifier. Try them, and enjoy the glorious health and new strength they'll give you. Money back, if not satisfied. Only 50c. at R. R. Bellamy's.

FIRM UNDERTONE FOR STOCKS

No Material Change in Controlling Factors on Market Yesterday. List Yielded to Moderate Pressure—Features.

New York, July 17.—The controlling factors in the stock market was not changed materially today, and trading remained dormant with a few modifications of appearance in price levels. During the greater part of the day the market maintained a firm undertone with prices slightly higher. A heavier tone developed before the close, and the list yielded on moderate pressure. The whole day's range was small and trading was dull throughout. Transactions for the day were not far from the low point of the year, falling to the meagre total of 141,600 shares. Canadian Pacific advancing 1½ to 243½, the highest price at which this stock ever sold. The advance strengthened Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste Marie, a subsidiary, which moved up a point. Southern Railway, ordinarily an inactive issue, led the market through the greater part of the session in point of activity and advanced to within a small fraction of its high price of the year. There was a further recovery in Texas Oil on advices from Paris, telling of the improved condition in its chief projector. National Biscuit and Underwood Typewriter advanced briskly on small transactions, and American Tobacco, pfd., lost a point.

Rains in the corn belt and in sections of the cotton growing country seemed to be without effect on the stock market, despite the heaviness in cotton and grain. Lower prices for the new crop of cotton apparently were discounted in a drastic reduction in the price of cotton goods, made on account of the limited demand. Reports from traffic officials at leading railway centers told of a more or less steady maintenance of tone and fairly good prospects for heavy crop movements.

Standard Oil, which sold at 6.40 little more than a week ago, for a time today was quoted at 6.61 on the "curb." The rise in price of this stock is believed to reflect a growing belief that the reorganization of the company decreed by the Supreme Court will not impair materially its earning power, and that misgivings as to the effect upon stockholders have been allayed. The unexpectedly good showing in the last bank statement of a cash gain instead of the predicted loss, had no apparent effect upon the money market, time funds being slightly firmer.

The bond market was steady. Total sales, 1,805,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day, 140,800 shares.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, July 18.—The primary cotton goods market was unsettled and quiet, on account of the cut of ¾c. a yard on one of the best known lines of bleached goods. A fair trade is passing in men's wear woolens for spring. Staple worsted men's wear will be opened for spring 1912 delivery Thursday next. Cheap woolen and cotton warp dress fabrics have not been opened for spring shipment as yet, but the largest mills will name prices for the new season next Thursday morning.

MAY REJECT VETO BILL.

Unexpected Contingency Confronts Career of the Measure.

London, July 17.—An entirely unexpected contingency confronts the career of the veto bill tonight. It is a possibility that the House of Lords, instead of passing the third reading of the bill with their amendments on Thursday, thus sending it back to the House of Commons for consideration, may reject it entirely, even with amendments. In that event Premier Asquith is fully expected to announce, as he probably would that he had advised the King to create a large block of new peers.

The Liberal party is no more anxious for an inflated peerage than the lords are, will not balk at the creation of peers if the necessity is forced upon them. The parliamentary programme of the Liberals, is as the Right Hon. Walter Runciman, president of the board of education, said in a speech saturday, "the bill and nothing but the bill."

Two moves in the lords' game today excited great speculation. One was a conference of the conservative leaders, the Marquis of Lansdowne, the Earl of Selborne, Baron Middleton, the Marquis of Salisbury and others. The second was a strong appeal by Lord Morley of Blackburn to the Liberal lords. Lord Morley, in a circular letter said:

"It is possible that a certain number of opposition peers may force division on the third reading of the Parliamentary bill. The momentous results at stake, both immediate and in the future make it in the highest degree desirable that no supporter of the bill should be absent from his place. I earnestly trust, therefore, that your lordship will not fail to give his majesty's government the advantage of your presence on what may prove so truly critical an occasion."

A group of extremist peers, estimated at from 50 to 80, is sworn to fight the bill to the last ditch and if it came to a fight between them and the liberals the former would have a chance of winning.

Lord Merley's unusual appeal was attributed by politicians to a threat to reject the bill. A great flurry spread in political circles for a few hours, but was succeeded by comparative calm. The best opinion late tonight is that the lords will return the amended bill to the House on Thursday and give Premier Asquith an opportunity to show his hand when the House takes it up Monday, and the Premier will announce that the government refuses to accept the amendments and will, if necessary, call on the king to create new peers.

Then a final struggle will come between the two factions of the conservative lords—the stand-patters—and those who believe the lesser of the evils will be to swallow the bill with the expressed declaration that the conservatives will repeal it when they return to power. By accepting the bill they can stave off home rule for two years; by rejecting it they put the liberals in a position to adopt all the extremist schemes of legislation without delay.

Meanwhile, there is no doubt that the government has made up its list of possible peers, the number of them according to the latest belief, being 350.

BUNCOMBE SUPERIOR COURT

Violations of Search and Sizure Law Tried Past Week

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Asheville, N. C., July 17.—The two-weeks special term of Superior Court for the trial of criminal cases closed Saturday. The first week of this court was held by Judge Webb, the second by Judge Lane. Many whiskey cases were disposed of during this term while some of the more interesting ones were continued until the August term. In the whiskey cases those which had to do with the violation of the search and seizure law were of special prominence and there were several convictions under this law. Many cases of minor importance were cleared from the docket, greatly relieving the congested condition. The most important cases continued were those of W. H. Souther, B. H. Thrasn and George Cathey, who were charged with violating the search and seizure law.

REBELS IN NICARAGUA.

Reported That Managua is Now in a State of Siege.

Panama, July 17.—Man advices from Rivas, Nicaragua, forwarded under date of July 10, described the capital, Managua, as in a state of siege. The prisons were filled with political prisoners loaded with chains. Many of these are not charged with specific offenses, but are suspected of disloyalty to President Diaz' government. The wife of one prisoner obtained his liberty, it is said, by paying those in authority $25,000.

The advices further state that telegrams, cablegrams and even private correspondence is rigidly censored.

The government suddenly prohibited the circulation of $5 and $50 bills that were printed in Managua by former Presidents Zelaya and Madriz, alleging that many spurious notes were in circulation. This has caused much inconvenience.

SHOT DESPOILER OF HOME.

Shooting Occurred in Italian Cafe in New York.

New York, July 17.—"He ruined my home," said Giuseppe Romanello today, when arraigned on the charge of killing Alesandro Zarro and mortally wounding Filipo Prosapio. The shooting occurred in an Italian cafe in Harlem late last night while thousands of Italians outside were celebrating the annual festival of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Zarro and Prosapio were at a table when Romanello entered. An argument with Zarro was followed by a gun play that drove everybody else oue of the cafe. Fifteen policemen had all they could do to get Romanello to the police station through the crowd of celebrators.

MIMIC WAR IN NEW YORK.

Naval Marines Holding Maneuvers In the Harbor.

New York, July 17.—Notwithstanding that an attack by the fleet of 17 battleships is impending, with only cruisers, torpedo and submarine craft for defense, New Yorkers slept scundly tonight unmindful of the morrow's mid-night when the declaration of mimic war on the city goes into effect.

During the day there came reports of the assembly of warships near Gardiner's Bay, at the eastern extremity of Long Island, where the defensive flotilla has established a block to New York's "back door" and of the enemy's secret rendezvous not far out at sea.

The attacking fleet of "blues" under command of Rear Admiral Osterhaus, is made up inc addition to the regular battleship crews as follows:

Ninety-eight Maine militiamen on the Washington; 110 Rhode Islanders or the Michigan; 130 Connecticut mariners in the Connecticut, 556 New York State sailors on the Missouri, Mississippi, Ohio, Minnesota and New Jersey; 108 District of Columbia militiamen on the Virginia; 97 Pennsylvanians on the Idaho, and 108 from South Carolina on the Nebraska.

The sham battle is to be fought at any time during the two days, beginning at mid-night tomorrow. The defensive forces were getting in line tonight in Gardiner's Bay where the service pennant of Captain A. H. Davis, U. S. N., commander of the Atlantic Coast naval militia, flies from the cruiser Chicago. Assistant Secretary of the Navy Beekman Wintrop will view the maneuvers from the Chicago. Captain Davis' fleet will co-operate on the defensive side with the Atlantic torpedo flotilla, under Commander E. E. Eberele.

The "enemy" will seek to penetrate a defensive line drawn from Montauk Point to Block Island, thence to No Man's Land. Should the ships pass without the "red" or defensive fleet getting in range at night, or being able to concentrate fire on them during the day, the victory goes to the "enemy."

LUMBERTON NEWS.

Colored Barbers Fined—Personal and General Notes of Interest.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., July 17.—In the Mayor's Court today Charles Dillard and William Yarborough, colored barbers, were fined $10 and costs each for being drunk and disorderly yesterday. They were required to give $100 bond for their appearance at September court to answer charges in which the Mayor has no jurisdiction. They were committed to jail but later gave bond and were released.

Mrs. B. M. Davis and daughter, Miss Claudia Davis, left this evening for Rapidan, Va., where they will spend some time with relatives. They were accompanied by Mrs. M. A. Garnett, mother of Mrs. Davis.——Mrs. H. A. Beard, mother of Mayor White, has arrived from Winston to spend some time with him and family. Mr. J. R. White accompanied his mother.——Rev. E. M. Hoyle, pastor of Lumberton Methodist church, left this morning for Gibson, N. C., where he will assist in a protracted meeting this week.——The condition of Sheriff McNeill is reported as slightly improved today. Mr. W. K. Bethune, of the Robesonian, has been confined to his room for several days on account of sickness.——Mr. R. McA. Nixon, of the First National Bank, left this evening for Shelby, where on Wednesday morning he will be best man at the marriage of his brother, Mr. C. W. Nixon, of Wilmington, to Miss Margaret Fayles, of Shelby.

Work was begun today remodeling the Pope Drug Co. store.

Lumberton's second baseball nine went to Fairmont this morning and played with the team of that town this afternoon, the game resulting 3 to 2 in favor of Lumberton.

NEW CENTER OF POPULATION.

Found Now in Monroe County, Ind., Says Census Bureau.

Washington, July 17.—The center of population of the United States is four and one-fourth miles south of Unionville, Monroe county, Ind., according to a census bureau announcement today. Since 1900, when it was six miles southeast of Columbus, Ind., it has moved 31 miles westward and seven-tenths of a mile northward. The westward movement was more than twice that of 1890-1900 decade. The acceleration of the Westward movement is attributed by census officials principally to the growth to the Western and Southwestern States.

The geographical center of the United States is in northern Kansas, so that the center of population, therefore, is about 550 miles east of the geographical center of the country.

Washington, D. C., July 17.—Facing an almost endless chain of re-arrests and sentences for obtaining money under false pretenses, Donald C. Thompson, who was arrested in Leavenworth, Kan., upon the expiration of a two-year sentence he had served in the Federal penitentiary there for passing worthless checks in Norfolk, Va., was brought back to Washington tonight to face trial for an alleged similar offense here.

Brussels, July 17.—The Belgian aviator, Olieslagers, in a monoplane today made a flight of 626 kilometers (388 miles) at the aerodrome without a stop. This beats the world's record for distance, in an uninterrupted flight, held by Tabuteau, 584 kilometers (362 miles).

MANY KILLED IN MINE.

Twenty-One Lives Snuffed Out in Dubois Tragedy.

Dubois, Pa., July 16.—Twenty-one miners were killed in an explosion in the shaft of the Cascade Coal & Coke Company's mine, at Sykesville, nine miles from here, last night. The explosion occurred at 9:30 o'clock, but it was after midnight before the extent of the disaster was known. All of the dead but three are foreigners.

The explosion was slight, as shown by the small damage done the mine, but the deadly after-damp is responsible for most of the deaths.

Three sets of brothers and father and son are numbered among the dead. Geo. and John Heak, Nick Pavelock and his 14-year-old son were found by the rescuers locked in each other's arms, as though they had embraced each other in their dying moments. None of the men apparently had made ready to escape, for they carried their dinner pails and were headed for the opening.

The first intimation of the explosion at the surface was when the safety door of the fan blew open and the machinery began to run wild.

It was surmised there was trouble below, but it was almost midnight when rescuers could enter the mine. It took some time to get to the scene of the accident, a mile and a half from the opening, because the rescuers were oblibed to carry oxygen with them.

Four bodies were buried beneath a cave-in in a heading and were not recovered until late today. The State constabulary from Punxsutawney, was called to police the vicinity of the shaft.

The bodies of the 21 victims of the explosion in the shaft were brought to the surface today.

COOL WAVE FOR THIS WEEK.

Unusually Low Summer Temperatures Are Predicted.

Washington, July 16.—Following the hot wave that recently brought death and suffering to the whole country, this week's weather promises to furnish surprises in the other direction with the result that unusually low Summer temperatres probably will prevail.

The Weather Bureau sees in an abnormally high barometric pressure over the interior of Canada and Alaska and relatively low pressure on the Atlantic ocean, the conditions that will usher in a cool wave.

"This pressure distribution is strongly indicative of temperatures below the seasonal average the coming week," says the Weather Bureau report, "practically all parts of the country from the Rocky Mountains to the Atlantic coast.

"West of the Rocky Mountains temperatures will average near or above the normal with generally fair weather, except that occasional showers are probable in the southern plateau and southern Rocky Mountain regions.

"The week will open with generally fair weather east of the Rocky Mountains, except that showers are probable Monday in the Middle Atlantic and New England States and during the next several days in the South Atlantic and Gulf States.

"An area of unsettled weather and showers will develop over the Middle West Thursday, and thence spread eastward to the Atlantic States by the latter port of the week."

ROASTS TENEMENT HOUSES

French Official Finds New York Conditions Amazing.

Hoboken, N. J., July 17.—Dr. Charles Pranard, deputy chief of the Bureau of Eocial Providence of France, who is here to look over this city's housing methods, finds conditions in New York "amazing." He started off with an examination of housing condition in France but his first glimpse led him to think that the city had better send to Paris for instructions.

"I inspected several tenements in lower Manhattan," he said on his return, "and found the tenants paying $5 a month rent per room. Many of these rooms are so dark that they should be vacated at once as unfit for human beings to live in. They are also veritable death traps."

QUICK DEATH AT SING SING.

Slayer of Two Pays Penalty for One of His Deeds.

Ossining, N. Y., July 17.—Giuseppi Serimarce, who killed two men during his 27 years of life, paid the penalty for one of his deeds today at Sing Sing prison. One minute's contact of the electric current left him a corpse. It was the quickest execution since the electric chair was introduced at the State prison.

Serimarce murdered Anthony Side at Mamaroneco a year ago, after quarreling in a dance hall. Five years ago at Peekskill he killed a man, but escaped punishment on pela of self defense.

MONTGOMERY VOTED OUT.

Vote for Dispensary Smaller Than the Vote for Prohibition.

Montgomery, Ala., July 17.—With 8 small country beats to hear from, Montgomery county today voted wet by a majority of 1,667. The vote for dispensary was smaller than the vote for prohibition.

Washington, July 17.—As the result of an unfavorable report to the State Department on conditions in Mexico close to the Arizona border, the War Department today ordered the four troops of cavalry at Nogales to remain there until the situation clears. The detachment had been ordered to Fort Huachuaca and was to leave Nogales today, but the department quickly changed its plans upon the receipt of disquieting news.

Kansas City, Mo., July 17.—It is probable that Mrs. Mary E. Armour, widow of S. B. A. Armour, the packer, never will recover the full amount of the bonds taken from her by Miss Harriet Byington, her companion. This was the statement made tonight by Miss Byington's attorney, when asked if the peculations of the companion would be repaid by her relatives.

Port Deposit, Md., July 17.—A cyclone today practically destroyed Richardsmen, a hamlet eight miles north of here, and swept everything from its path in Octararo Valley. A flour mill built to make flour for Washton's army and which was still in operation, was demolished. The total damage is estimated at $40,000.

RALEIGH AFFAIRS.

Fraudulent Insurance—Young Man Required to Make Amends to Girl.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 17.—Insurance Commissioner Young issued today a notice to the people of the State giving a list of fraudulent mutual insurance company just exposed by the Pennsylvania Commissioner of Insurance, Mr. McCullock, under the provisions of a special act of the Pennsylvania Legislature, and asking that the people of this State look over their insurance policies and see if they hold any in these fraudulent institutions.

This afternoon Judge Peebles entered a sentence of two years on the roads or the payment of $750 to the girl he mistreated in the case of Turner Smith, convicted Saturday of assaulting Miss Lillian Whitson. Ex-Governor Aycock made a special plea for leniency, and insisted that the young man could not raise the amount of money exacted in lieu of the road sentence. However, he was given time to see what could be done. Solicitor Norris opposed delaying the matter for raising fine, saying that Gov. Aycock had said the money could not be raised. However, Gov. Aycock took the ground that he didn't know, and that he was only judging of the ability of the prisoner and his friends to raise money by the amount that was paid to him as a counsel fee. Judge Peebles stirred a general laugh at the expense of the ex-governor by exclaiming: "Oh, well, that is no indication. You are a candidate for the united States Senate and are not expected to exact high fees from the people."

"That candidacy and the expense it may incur should necessitate the highest possible fees," said Gov. Aycock, while the crowd was laughing at his expense.

THREE DEAD IN EXPLOSION.

Plant of Dupont Company at Denver Destroyed.

Denver, Col., July 17.—Fragments of human flesh, found within a radius of 20 yards, give evidence that three men were killed early today when 5,000 pounds of nitro-glycerine exploded, destroying the neutralizing plant and storehouse of the Dupont Powder Company, 15 miles south of Denver.

The force of the blast was almost entirely upward. Men in the vicinity saw the two buildings rise in a cloud of black smoke with a circle of flame at its base. When the buildings had reached a height of 100 feet they collapsed and fell in a shower of fragments.

NEAR-BEER TRAGEDY.

Contractor Shot and Almost Instantly Killed Sunday.

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 17.—Geo. Harper, contractor of Benton, Polk county, was shot and almost instantly killed at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon on the public square at Benton by John Harbison, proprietor of a pool room and near-beer saloon. The men began playing with each other and finally became enraged and Arthur struck Harbison with a beer bottle and the latter drew his pistol and fired two shots, both of which took effect in Arthur's body. Arthur leaves a wife and six children and belonged to a prominent family.

Santiago, Chile, July 17.—In accordance with King George's award the Chilean government has ordered the payment of 187,000 pounds ($935,000) to the representatives of the Alsop claimants.
